The Renewal of Preaching in the Twenty-first Century, Second Edition David J. Randolph, 2008-07-01 Deep Faith Meets High Tech here in The Renewal of Preaching in the Twenty first Century A communications revolution is sweeping through the churches leaving some on fire and others burned out This work shows what makes the difference for church leaders and communities who are using new media to advance Christian preaching Join them by recovering the great tradition and expanding it through creative use encouraged by artists and filmmakers as well as preachers and professors This work explores ways to maximize the promise of preaching and confront the perils leading to the renewal of church and society Beginning with review of the situation today we proceed step by step through the preparation and presentation of the sermon leading to transformation The sermon in the local parish is seen as the microcosm of the macrocosm that is the communication of God s good news Rooted in a knowledge of and respect for traditional worship David Randolph accurately assesses the difficulty facing mainline traditions in speaking to today s visual culture But he doesn t stop there He eloquently outlines a course of action that gives emphasis to the visual and in particular to the use of what he terms new media Renewal of Preaching is a must read not only as a text for those preparing for ministry but also for long time pastors seeking new ways of speaking to today s generation Joan Brix Carter Dean of College of Art and Design Olivet University Sermons and Addresses Marc Saperstein, 2023-04-28 When a respected scholar with a career at three major American universities moves to a position as principal of an important institution in UK there is likely to be considerable interest in what he has to say not only to his students but to many others as well The two most important formats for such communication were the sermon and the academic lecture Historically the sermon has been an extremely important form of communication first as verbal communication to a specific group of listeners and then as a written text made available to many more readers Marc Saperstein was a member of Beth Shalom Reform Congregation in Cambridge where religious services were directed and sermons delivered not by the rabbi of the synagogue which never had a rabbi but by members of the congregation During the five years from 2006 2011 Marc Saperstein delivered 29 sermons in Beth Shalom He also was asked to deliver sermons at 15 other congregations The texts of these sermons are now accessible in the book I & II Timothy and Titus (2002) Raymond F. Collins, 2013-10-26 The Pastoral Epistles present difficult questions for the modern interpreter including such matters as their authorship literary characteristics and social orientations Raymond Collins carefully leads the reader through the texts of these three documents attending to the flow of the Pastor s thought and locating it within the Jewish and Hellenistic culture of his day The New Testament Library offers authoritative commentary on every book and major aspect of the New Testament as well as classic volumes of scholarship The commentaries in this series provide fresh translations based on the best available ancient manuscripts offer critical portrayals of the historical world in which the books were created pay careful attention to their literary design and present a theologically perceptive exposition of the text Preaching the
