Alfred John Griffith

Preaching On The Crucifixion:

The Crucifixion Fleming Rutledge, 2015-09-04 Though the apostle Paul boldly proclaimed Christ crucified as the heart of the gospel Fleming Rutledge notes that preaching about the cross of Christ is remarkably neglected in most churches today In this book Rutledge addresses the issues and controversies that have caused pastors to speak of the cross only in the most general bland terms precluding a full understanding and embrace of the gospel by their congregations Countering our contemporary tendency to bypass Jesus crucifixion Rutledge in these pages examines in depth all the various themes and motifs used by the New Testament evangelists and apostolic writers to explain the meaning of the cross of Christ She mines the classical writings of the Church Fathers the medieval scholastics and the Reformers as well as more recent scholarship while bringing them all into contemporary context Widely known for her preaching Rutledge seeks to encourage preachers teachers and anyone else interested in what Christians believe to be the central event of world history

Crucified and Risen: Sermons on the Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Christ John Calvin, 2020-02-24 To call the arrest trial scourging and crucifixion of Jesus Christ a miscarriage of justice is true as far as it goes but it does not go far enough Christ's death on the cross was not an accident but as his resurrection attests was accomplished according to the sovereign loving will of God by which sinners can be reconciled to the One who made them and can pass by grace from death to life In this memorable set of sermons which date from 1557 to 1558 Calvin chief pastor of the Genevan church offers a sensitive reading of Matthew's account of Christ's passion death and resurrection The preacher's focus however is not so much on the events themselves as on their significance on what he calls the fruit and efficacy of Christ's redemptive work What in practical terms is the import of the Easter message for the life of faith Calvin's answer has vital implications not only for what we believe but for the way we live serve worship and pray

Why Did Jesus Die? Dick Tripp, 2014-01-28 It is surprising how few books on the cross have stood the test of time During the twentieth century James Denny's Death of Christ 1903 Leon Morris's Apostolic Preaching of the Cross 1955 and John Stott's The Cross of Christ 1986 are among the few outstanding works Now in Dick Tripp's Why Did Jesus Die we have a work of outstanding and lasting worth an amazingly comprehensive reference to all the biblical texts that point to Christ's death its meaning and significance for today's church Throughout there is constant cross reference to both Testaments to the church's commentators throughout history and to contemporary Christian writers A mine of fact and interpretation to inspire the heart of any preacher and teacher of Scripture I unreservedly commend this book to pastors as a study guide for preaching on the cross and to all who seek to live out in daily life Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord Bruce Nicholls editor of the Asia Bible Commentary Series from the foreword Dick Tripp combs the Scriptures to find and focus every reference to history's most momentous event Does a more thorough analysis of the biblical data exist anywhere I doubt it James I Packer Board of Governors s Professor of Theology Regent College Vancouver Dick Tripp s treatment of the cross of Christ is comprehensive and readable Students and seasoned preachers alike will find this book and the way the material is arranged most helpful Derek Eaton former Bishop of Nelson and Assistant Bishop of Cairo Preaching Christ Crucified ... Charles E. O'Neile,1926 Preaching on the Crucifixion Douglas William Cleverley Ford,1993 The Crucifixion is at the heart of Christianity yet it is often the most difficult part of Christ s life to come to terms with The 21 sermons in this book written in non technical language cover the events surrounding the Crucifixion and the motivations of the people involved as well as examining its implications for Christians Let the Gospels Preach the Gospel Christopher J. H. Wright,2017-01-14 Preaching about the cross of Christ is one of the greatest privileges and responsibilities any preacher can have The four Gospel writers who wrote about the cross of Christ and the events leading up to it did so in their own unique way Each interpreting the events through the lens of different Old Testament Scriptures and each emphasising different themes Based on his own sermons preached over a number of years at All Souls Church in London Christopher Wright explores the rich variety and lets the four Gospels preach the Gospel in their own way This is an excellent resource for preachers which is further enriched by the final chapter that provides a personal commentary on how Wright prepared each of the sermons

The Epistles of Paul Philip Schaff,1888 Stumbling over the Cross Joni S. Sancken,2016-04-21 It has never been easy to preach about the cross and resurrection of Jesus but difficulties today are particularly challenging Hearers ask tough questions of the church and the Christian faith and they are not satisfied by formulaic answers People are often suspicious of doctrine and are attracted to a broad but vague or pluralistic spirituality rather than the classical claims of Christianity In this climate preachers often see preaching on the central events of the Christian story the crucifixion and resurrection as more of a problem than a possibility more of a burden than a joy They wonder not only how to preach the old old story of cross and resurrection but whether they should preach these themes at all This book addresses these concerns and shows preachers how to preach the cross and resurrection in fresh culturally relevant ways that deepen Christian discipleship Each chapter shows the relevance of preaching the cross for addressing a particular congregational concern What has ironically become a stumbling block in the pulpit the stone that preachers often reject preaching on the cross and resurrection of Jesus can serve as the cornerstone for building up the congregation for discipleship in our world We Preach Christ Crucified Michael Connors, 2014-02-04 In June of 2012 an astounding 360 people gathered at the University of Notre Dame for a major conference on Catholic preaching With contributions by a wide variety of theologians and practitioners We Preach Christ Crucified gathers the fruits of those days spent reflecting on the importance of the preaching ministry Its release is timely given the US bishops promulgation of a new document on preaching Preaching the Mystery of Faith The Sunday Homily January 2013 and the renewed emphasis on preaching by both Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis The challenges facing Christian preachers in our time are many and formidable ones The authors in this collection take a fresh look at the task the resources at hand the contemporary context and the preacher The result is a refreshing and stunningly hopeful reconsideration of an ancient ministry We Preach Christ Crucified includes essays by Robert Barron Archbishop Robert J Carlson John C Cavadini Archbishop Gustavo Garcia Siller MSpS Mary Catherine Hilbert OP Jan Michael Joncas Barbara E Reid OP Michael E Connors CSC ThD is a pastoral theologian and teacher of homiletics on the faculty of the Theology Department at the University of Notre Dame where he also directs the John S Marten Program in Homiletics and Liturgics He is the author of Incultured Pastoral Planning The U S Hispanic Experience Gregorian University Press 2001 Sunday School Times, 1882 The Undoing of Death Fleming Rutledge, 2005-10-03 The Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus comprise the two part event at the heart of the Christian story Because of its unique meaning and the intense emotions it invokes Holy Week brings high expectations on the part of congregations and places unusual demands on those who deliver the messages It takes a specially gifted preacher to communicate the profundity of Christ s Passion and its supreme relevance for our contemporary world Fleming Rutledge is just such a preacher Heralded by congregations and peers alike as one of today s most compelling and powerful Christian voices Mrs Rutledge is also a best selling author whose previous collections of sermons have touched readers deeply This new volume representing twenty five years of Holy Week and Easter preaching offers a wide ranging vision of the Cross and Resurrection that will inform and inspire committed believers and serious seekers alike Divided into seven sections that progress through Holy Week from Palm Sunday to Good Friday to

Easter and on through Eastertide these sermons incorporate the biblical themes of sacrifice for sin vicarious suffering victory over evil and death and the new creation arising out of eternal love Many of these sermons are brand new others especially those for Good Friday have been rethought and reworked over a period of years None have ever been published before All of them consistently display Mrs Rutledge s startling ability to bridge the message of the ancient biblical texts with the distinct needs of modern people Intellectually engaging pastorally wise and beautifully written The Undoing of Death is accented with thirty three artistic masterpieces depicting the events of Holy Week making it a feast for the eye as well as the soul

The Cross and the Crucifixion Grace Dola Balogun,2011-12-13 Christ paid for the sins of the people of the world on the cross The work of redemption of God the Father through God the Son which started at the Garden of Eden was completed on the day that Christ was crucified on the cross As the great hymn says On the cross is when I first saw the Lord and all my sins rolled away All believers must come to the realization that the cross of Christ is the basis for our salvation If Christ did not go to the cross there would be no salvation and no eternal life We would still be in our sins We should all praise and glorify the God of glory for the finished work of salvation on the cross If some churches preach and say to forget the cross that Christ is no longer on the tree those preachers are not preaching the true Gospel The cross should be in our churches and in our homes to remind us of the agony of our Lord so that we may totally surrender to His Lordship and live with Him from this earth to heaven Let us embrace the cross the power and the love of Jesus Christ for humanity through His crucifixion on the cross
