Long Long Song:

The Golden Book of Favorite Songs, 1985-03 An entirely different collection from The Gray Book of Favorite Songs this 21st edition is the newest in a long lived popular book since 1915 Truly A Treasury of the Best Songs of Our People Includes the Gettysburg Address and histories of the best loved patriotic songs of America Hugo Wolf and his Mörike Songs Susan Youens, 2000-06-22 Viennese composer Hugo Wolf produced one of the most important song collections of the nineteenth century when he set to music fifty three poems by the great German poet Eduard Mörike Susan Youens reappraises this singular collaboration to shed new light on the sophisticated interplay between poetry and music in the songs Wolf is customarily described as the Poet's Composer someone who revered poetry and served it faithfully in his music Yet as Youens reveals this cliché overlooks the rich terrain in which his songs are often at cross purposes with his chosen poetry Although Wolf did much to draw the world's attention to the neglected Swabian poet his musical interpretation of the poetry was also influenced by his own life psychology and experiences This book examines selected Mörike songs in detail demonstrating that the poems and music each have their own distinctive stories which at times intersect but also diverge The Halcyon song-book, 1909 American War Songs National Society of the Colonial Dames of America, 1925 Sacred Songs of Scotland ... Second thousand Scotland, 1862 Strike Songs of the Depression Timothy P. Lynch, 2009-11-12 The Depression brought unprecedented changes for American workers and organized labor As the economy plummeted employers cut wages and laid off workers while simultaneously attempting to wrest more work from those who remained employed In mills mines and factories workers organized and resisted striking for higher wages improved working conditions and the right to bargain collectively As workers walked the picket line or sat down on the shop floor they could be heard singing This book examines the songs they sang at three different strikes the Gastonia North Carolina textile mill strike 1929 Harlan County Kentucky coal mining strike 1931-32 and Flint Michigan automobile sit down strike 1936-37 Whether in the Carolina Piedmont the Kentucky hills or the streets of Michigan the workers songs were decidedly class conscious All show the workers understanding of the necessity of solidarity and collective action In Flint the strikers sang The trouble in our homestead Was brought about this way When a dashing corporation Had the audacity to say You must all renounce your union And forswear your liberties And we'll offer you a chance To live and die in slavery As a shared experience the singing of songs not only sent the message of collective action but also provided the very means by which the message was communicated and promoted Singing was a communal experience whether on picket lines at union rallies or on shop floors By providing the psychological space for striking workers to speak their minds singing nurtured a sense of community and class consciousness When strikers retold the events of their strike as they did in songs they spread and preserved their common history and further strengthened the bonds among themselves In the strike songs the roles of gender were pronounced and vivid Wives and mothers sang out of their concerns for home family and children Men sang in the name of worker loyalty and brotherhood championing male solidarity and camaraderie Informed by the new social history this critical examination of strike songs from three different industries in three different regions gives voice to a group too often deemed as inarticulate This study the only book length examination of this subject tells history from the bottom up and furthers an understanding of worker culture during the tumultuous Depression years Popular Songs of the A.E.F. ,1918 The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular ,1920 The World's Best Music ,1899 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
