Looking Good Feeling Beautiful:

Digging Into Popular Culture Ray Broadus Browne, Pat Browne, 1991 This volume presents archeological studies in conjunction with cultural anthropological studies as a means to enhance popular culture studies Scholar Malcolm K Shuman points out that the study of archeology must be careful to chart the total human content of an artifact because archeology is a profoundly human and humanizing endeavor that cannot be divorced from the matrix of human life The other ten essays cover aspects of archeology and cultural anthropology and the authors are meticulous in studying their subject in context

The Beauty Paradox Chiara Piazzesi, 2023-03-06 Why must beauty be seen as a binary that is either oppressive or empowering for women The Beauty Paradox Femininity in the Age of Selfies argues that women's experiences of beauty as both validating and belittling is grounded in the contradictory injunctions that they receive regarding their participation in beauty culture Piazzesi identifies the four main paradoxes of Western beauty culture the worth paradox the authenticity paradox the power paradox and the commitment paradox and examines how they trail women's everyday experiences choices and reflections regarding beauty She examines the role of beauty in women's everyday lives and in a variety of contexts informal social encounters work and career settings parenting intergenerational relationships self care and online networking practices The author broadens the current discourse on beauty with an emphasis on the digital world primarily the use of selfies

Ooh La La! Jamie Cat Callan, 2013-06-01 The author of Bonjour Happiness offers a revealing foray into French femininity with beauty and style secrets from the women of Paris and beyond French women seem to have a special knack for life's most important things food love raising children And in matters of beauty and style they appear to be at an unfair advantage But the truth is that French women are not born more attractive than anyone else and everything they know can be learned French women learn at a young age how to feel beautiful confident and sexy inside and out It's an allure that outlasts youth in fact some of France's most celebrated women are femmes d'un certain ge Growing up Jamie Cat Callan had a French grand m re to instruct her on style grooming and genuinely liking her reflection in the mirror Now she shares that wisdom along with advice from other French women on fragrance image consulting makeup and more This charming foray into French femininity will make a perfect cadeau for any Francophile lady Publishers Weekly

Making Peace with Yourself Harold Bloomfield, M.D., 2011-05-11 I'm afraid of getting again When I look in the mirror I'm never quite satisfied I can't stand criticism I'm always feeling tense and rushed I wish I could be happier Do any of these sound familiar Aren't they exactly the kinds of weaknesses that keep us from enjoying our lives to the fullest This wise and compassionate book can help you confront these problems perhaps for the first time in your life Through a series of exercises case studies and personal growth techniques you'll learn to analyze your weakness and most importantly strip it of the power it has over you Making Peace with Yourself is one of life's toughest challenges but the rewards will be tremendous

Living the Body Meenakshi Thapan, 2009-01-06 This is a book about embodiment and identity in the context of particular women's lives in an urban setting It is concerned with the development of a sociology of embodiment in the context of women s lives in contemporary urban India The focus on embodiment is mediated by gender and class two critical elements that constitute identity in relation to embodiment The study is based on material collected from interviews with working class women in an urban slum and with professional upper class women with young women in secondary schools and from material from a women s magazine
