Lookout Cartridge:

Lookout Cartridge Joseph McElroy, 2003-11-25 With Lookout Cartridge Joseph McElroy established a reputation as one of contemporary fiction's foremost innovators and deft observers into the fissures of modern society. It is a novel of dazzling intricacy absorbing suspense and the highest ambition to redeem the great claim of paranoia on the American psyche. In trying to figure out just who is so threatened by an innocent piece of cinema verité filmed in collaboration with a friend Cartwright finds himself at the heart of a mystery stretching from New York and London to Corsica and Stonehenge. With each new fact he gathers both the intricacy of the syndicate arrayed against him and what his search will cost him become alarmingly clear. Writing and Destablization in Joseph McElroy's Lookout Cartridge Isabelle Johnston, 1998 Scenes of Nature, Signs of Men Tony Tanner, 1989-08-25

This book is about the relationship of the American writer to his land and language to the scene and the sign to the natural landscape and the inscriptions imposed upon it by men. Among the questions considered in the first section of the book are how does American Romantic writing differ from European what are the peculiar problems faced by the American artist and what roles does he adopt to tackle them what kind of writing results when authors as different as Henry Adams and Mark Twain lament the vanishing of an earlier America or when Adams and Henry James review their complex relationship to their homeland or when W D Howells and Stephen Crane seek to define their themes in a specifically American setting. The second section of the book examines similar concerns in a number of contemporary writers notably Thomas Pynchon John Barth Donald Barthelme John DeLillo and William Gass. Topologies of Fear in Contemporary Fiction Scott McClintock, 2015-07-21

The central concern of the book is the impact of global terror networks and state counterterrorism on twentieth century fiction. A unique contribution of this book is the comparative approach as opposed to the single author focus of most of the edited collections on terrorism in literature. Review of Contemporary Fiction, 1990 Tri-quarterly, 1983 Woman's Home Companion, 1918 The New Leader, 1975

Masterplots II.: Gre-Los Steven G. Kellman, 2000 Includes more than 360 interpretative essays on works of twentieth century fiction published in the United States and Latin America. The Pushcart Prize VIII Bill Henderson, 1983-09

Anything Can Happen Tom LeClair, Larry McCaffery, 1983 CR. The Centennial Review, 1996 The Hollywood Novel Anthony Slide, 1995 This reference book details over 1 200 English language works from a variety of genres such as historical novels romances mysteries and thrillers. Arranged by author the entries include bibliographic information on the books a brief synopsis that sets the author's work in context and a critical examination. National Identities and Post-Americanist Narratives Donald E. Pease, 1994

National narratives create imaginary relations within imagined communities called national peoples. But in the American narrative alongside the nexus of belonging established for the national community the national narrative has represented other peoples women blacks foreigners the homeless from whom the property of nationness has been removed altogether and upon whose differences from them the national people depended for the construction of their norms Dismantling this opposition has become the task of post national Post Americanist narratives bent on changing the assumptions that found the national identity This volume originally published as a special issue of boundary 2 focuses on the process of assembling and dismantling the American national narrative sketching its inception and demolition The contributors examine various cultural political and historical sources colonial literature mass movements epidemics of disease mass spectacle transnational corporations super weapons popular magazines literary texts out of which this narrative was constructed and propose different understandings of nationality and identity following in its wake Contributors Jonathan Arac Lauren Berlant Robert J Corber Elizabeth Freeman Kathryn V Lingberg Jack Matthews Alan Nadel Patrick O Donnell Daniel O Hara Donald E Pease Ross Posnock John Carlos Rowe Rob Wilson Hunter-trader-trapper ,1919 World Authors, 1975-1980 Vineta Colby,1985 Representing a broad range of ethnic diversity these in depth profiles present fascinating accounts of lives and careers the circumstances under which works were produced and their literary significance Each profile also includes critical evaluation a list of the author s principal works with date first published a list of major critical works and a portrait or photograph where available Literary Criticism Register ,1991 Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Oscar Hijuelos-Patrick McGinley ,2000 Contemporary Novelists ,1982 Postmodern Fiction Larry McCaffery,1986-09-23 The scope of the work is broad with European and Latin American influences well represented Recommended for collections that emphasize fiction of the past two decades Library Journal
