Strategic Retail Management Joachim Zentes, Dirk Morschett, Hanna Schramm-Klein, 2016-10-07 This book is devoted to the dynamic development of retailing The focus is on various strategy concepts adopted by retailing companies and their implementation in practice This is not a traditional textbook or collection of case studies it aims to demonstrate the complex and manifold questions of retail management in the form of twenty lessons where each lesson provides a thematic overview of key issues and illustrates them via a comprehensive case study The examples are all internationally known retail companies to facilitate an understanding of what is involved in strategic retail management and illustrate best practices In the third edition all chapters were revised and updated Two new chapters were added to treat topics like corporate social responsibility as well as marketing communication All case studies were replaced by new ones to reflect the most recent developments Well known retail companies from different countries like Tesco Zalando Hugo Boss Carrefour Amazon Otto Group are now used to illustrate particular aspects of retail management

Brand Choice Randolph J. Trappey, A. Woodside, 2004-11-23 Customers use mental short cuts and they get into ruts when making product and brand choices Brand Choice provides the tools that reveal customers automatic thoughts and how such thoughts accurately forecast brand choice Strategic thinking by customers includes their focusing attention and introspectively telling about how when where and why they buy and use brands and products For learning customers strategic thinking this book advocates in situ use of the long interview method

Strategic Retail Management and Brand Management Doris Berger-Grabner, 2021-10-25 The retail industry and associated business models have gone through a significant phase of disruption The rapid emergence of new technologies digital business models and the evolution of social media platforms as a new sales channel continue to influence the sector Key contextual or external trends will affect and shape the retail landscape in the years to come Therefore it seems important to prepare for this situation and be ready with a head start in terms of knowledge This textbook provides its readers basic knowledge about the national and international retail sector and gives important insights into trends and developments It deals with key trends in particular new patterns of personal consumption evolving geopolitical dynamics technological advancements and structural industry shifts Moreover it explains why it is so important that retailers use these trends adapt their retail strategies and tactics create strong brands and come up with innovative new ways of doing business Today we are living in a challenging time for retail This textbook tries to give insights and explanations to better understand these challenges and provide managerial implications
