Patterns In Comparative Religion:

Patterns in Comparative Religion Mircea Eliade, 2022-11-21 In this era of increased knowledge the essence of religious phenomena eludes the psychologists sociologists linguists and other specialists because they do not study it as religious According to Mircea Eliade they miss the one irreducible element in religious phenomena the element of the sacred Eliade abundantly demonstrates universal religious experience and shows how humanity s effort to live within a sacred sphere has manifested itself in myriad cultures from ancient to modern times how certain beliefs rituals symbols and myths have with interesting variations persisted

Patterns in Comparative Religion Mircea Eliade, 1974 Patterns in comparative religion Mircea Eliade, 1971 New Patterns for Comparative Religion William E. Paden, 2016-05-19 The cross cultural study of religion has always gone hand in hand with the worldview sciences or intellectual frameworks of the time These frames whether focused on psychology or politics gender or colonialism bring out perspectives for understanding religious behavior Today one of our common civic worldviews is represented in the shift from scriptural to evolutionary history This volume brings together in one place key essays by professor emeritus William Paden showing a progression of steps he has taken in exploring bridgeworks between comparative religion and evolutionary models of religious behavior One of the leading scholars in religious studies Paden shows ways that religion can be contextualized as part of the natural world and thus seen as reflecting the ingrained sociality and world making drive of the human species Paden argues that although comparativism has been challenged as too culture bound too western or too gendered cross over categories and concepts between religious traditions cannot be avoided Arguing that there are recurrent patterns of human behavior common to our species and that thereby underlie all cultures he proposes that the missing link in the Religion Evolution debate is comparative religion a global cross cultural perspective on religious behaviours throughout time Each article is contextualized within this overall trajectory of thought within Paden s work and the history of the discipline as a whole

Holdrege, 2026-04-02 Hindus Jews and the Politics of Comparison argues that comparative studies of Hindu and Jewish traditions can generate alternative epistemologies critically interrogating the Eurocentric and Protestant based paradigms in the academy that have perpetuated the ideals of Enlightenment discourse and colonial and neocolonial projects

Patterns of Action David Chidester, 1987 Korean Buddhist Sculpture U-bang Kang, 2005 Korean art is often considered to be subordinate to Chinese art or a bridge between China and Japan Moreover as most Korean art history is known through the work of Japanese and Euro American scholars there is room for misunderstanding on the subject But while Korean Buddhist sculpture one of the fields representing the essence of Korean art was certainly influenced by and is similar to Chinese sculpture at first glance it went beyond such influence to develop many unique characteristics The seven essays in this book investigate in depth three examples that show this aspect of Korean sculpture pensive images Seokguram cave temple and the Divine Bell of King Seongdeok which were produced during the period between the 6th and 8th centuries When we stand before a wonderful work of art we feel a sense of delight and experience catharsis because the artwork represents the oneness of truth and beauty The works discussed in this book are those that show that truth is beauty and beauty is truth Indeed it is impossible to express absolute truth in formative language without achieving absolute beauty and through the formative arts the author has endeavored to understand the zeitgeist that gave birth to such works These seven essays deal not only with the iconographical and stylistic aspects but also the philosophical side of these works of art and thus attempt to demonstrate that there is an inseparable relationship between religious truth and artistic style
