New Patterns for Comparative Religion William E. Paden,2016-05-19 The cross cultural study of religion has always gone hand in hand with the worldview sciences or intellectual frameworks of the time These frames whether focused on psychology or politics gender or colonialism bring out perspectives for understanding religious behavior Today one of our common civic worldviews is represented in the shift from scriptural to evolutionary history This volume brings together in one place key essays by professor emeritus William Paden showing a progression of steps he has taken in exploring bridgeworks between comparative religion and evolutionary models of religious behavior One of the leading scholars in religious studies Paden shows ways that religion can be contextualized as part of the natural world and thus seen as reflecting the ingrained sociality and world making drive of the human species Paden argues that although comparativism has been challenged as too culture bound too western or too gendered cross over categories and concepts between religious traditions cannot be avoided Arguing that there are recurrent patterns of human behavior common to our species and that thereby underlie all cultures he proposes that the missing link in the Religion Evolution debate is comparative religion a global cross cultural perspective on religious behaviours throughout time Each article is contextualized within this overall trajectory of thought within Paden s work and the history of the discipline as a whole

Eight Theories of Religion

Daniel L. Pals,2006 Why do human beings believe in divinities Why do some seek eternal life while others seek escape from recurring lives Why do the beliefs and behaviors we typically call religious so deeply affect the human personality and so subtly weave their way through human society Revised and updated in this second edition Eight Theories of Religion considers how these fundamental questions have engaged the most important thinkers of the modern era Accessible systematic and succinct the text examines the classic interpretations of religion advanced by theorists who have left a major imprint on the intellectual culture of the twentieth century The second edition features a new chapter on Max Weber a revised introduction and a revised expanded conclusion that traces the paths of further inquiry and interpretation traveled by theorists in the most recent decades Eight Theories of Religion Second Edition begins with Edward Burnett Tylor and James Frazer two Victorian pioneers in anthropology and the comparative study of religion It then considers the great reductionist approaches of Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim and Karl Marx all of whom have exercised wide influence up to the present day The discussion goes on to examine the leading challenges to reductionism as articulated by sociologist Max Weber new to this edition and Romanian American comparativist Mircea Eliade Finally it explores the newer methods and ideas arising from the African field studies of ethnographer E E Evans Pritchard and the interpretive anthropology of Clifford Geertz Each chapter offers biographical background theoretical exposition conceptual analysis and critical assessment This common format allows for close comparison and careful evaluation throughout Ideal for use as a supplementary text in introductory religion courses or as the central text in sociology of religion and courses centered on the explanation and interpretation of religion Eight Theories of Religion Second Edition offers an illuminating treatment of this controversial and fascinating subject
