Paul Bowles Magic And Morocco:

Paul Bowles Allen Hibbard, 2004 Paul Bowles 1910 1999 was one of the most paradoxical literary talents of his century a sophisticated New York writer and composer who lived a half century in Morocco a man who fled the western world that acclaimed him Paul Bowles Magic and Morocco is an extended homage a memoir of a friendship and an examination of more than a half century's influence of North African magic on Bowles's sensibilities and fictions Allen Hibbard a scholar and close friend situates Bowles with others like Conrad and Lawrence who lived a split existence literally and metaphorically divided between the modern and the primitive With an extensive knowledge of the Middle East and North Africa Hibbard weaves literary analysis and personal insight thereby yielding a unique understanding of the effects of Moroccan culture upon Bowles's sensibility

Call Me Burroughs Barry Miles, 2014-01-28 Fifty years ago Norman Mailer asserted William Burroughs is the only American novelist living today who may conceivably be possessed by genius Few since have taken such literary risks developed such individual political or spiritual ideas or spanned such a wide range of media Burroughs wrote novels memoirs technical manuals and poetry He painted made collages took thousands of photographs produced hundreds of hours of experimental recordings acted in movies and recorded more CDs than most rock bands Burroughs was the original cult figure of the Beat Movement and with the publication of his novel Naked Lunch which was originally banned for obscenity he became a guru to the 60s youth counterculture In Call Me Burroughs biographer and Beat historian Barry Miles presents the first full length biography of Burroughs to be published in a quarter century and the first one to chronicle the last decade of Burroughs's life and examine his long term cultural legacy Written with the full support of the Burroughs estate and drawing from countless interviews with figures like Allen Ginsberg Lucien Carr and Burroughs himself Call Me Burroughs is a rigorously researched biography that finally gets to the heart of its notoriously mercurial subject

Writing Tangier Ralph M. Coury, Robert Kevin Lacey, 2009 Writing Tangier discusses an array of topics relating to the literature on Tangier from the seventeenth century to the present Major questions include Why has Tangier come to play an important role in contemporary world literary history as a signifier in the literary imagination what is the nature of the inter textual output produced through Paul Bowles translations of the oral tales of a circle of uneducated storytellers including Mohammed Mrabet and Larbi Layachi and the text For Bread Alone brought to Bowles by the literate Mohamed Choukri how do academics artists and writers who have been based in the city or who have written about it assess the various socio economic political and cultural factors that have shaped its cultural production and the relationship of this production to the celebrated hybrid aspects of its identity does the success of the literature of Tangier reflect a truly new multicultural cosmopolitanism or does it stem from the fact that this literature is congenial to Westerners that it is understood in terms that they themselves define and that much of it including productions in Arabic prepared with the expectation of translation has even been written to measure for them Tangier Josh Shoemake, 2013-06-26 An edge city poised at the northernmost tip of Africa but just nine miles from Europe Tangier is more than a destination it is an escape The Interzone as William Burroughs called it has attracted spies outlaws outcasts and writers for centuries men and women breaking through artistic borders The results were some of the most incendiary and influential books of our time and the list of outlaw originals is long stretching from Ibn Battuta and Alexandre Dumas to Twain and Wharton and from the darkly brilliant Beats of Bowles Kerouac Gysin and Ginsberg to the great Moroccan novelists Mohamed Choukri Mohammed Mrabet and Tahar Ben Jelloun

Travel Narratives, Travel Fictions Daniel Cooper Alarcón, 2024-02-02 In Travel Narratives Travel Fictions Daniel Cooper Alarcón argues that travel literature performs important social and cultural criticism often overlooked in studies of the genre By examining non fiction and fiction novels and short stories that purposefully examine different types of travel in relationship to each other Cooper Alarcón documents and highlights the sophisticated ways that both types of writing have anticipated and contributed ideas central to critical studies of travel tourism and migration The author uses the term travel fictions to illustrate the ways in which travel narratives supposed factual accounts of travel often misrepresent distort and fabricate notions about the people and places they purport to describe creating useful mythologies and hinting at the ways in which the acts of reading and writing have become an integral part of traveling shaping not just itineraries but perceptions and beliefs about places travelers visit Both types of travel writing are influential in this regard and they frequently borrow from one another mutually reinforcing ideas tropes and modes of representation often in problematic ways

Journal of Middle Eastern and North African Intellectual and Cultural Studies, 2003 Weak Planet Wai Chee Dimock, 2022-12-22 Exploring weakness and vulnerability from the origins of American literature to the present she provocatively argues for collateral resilience Viet Thanh Nguyen Pulitzer Prize winning author Vulnerability We see it everywhere In once permanent institutions In runaway pandemics In democracy itself And most frighteningly in ecosystems with no sustainable future Against these large scale hazards of climate change what can literature teach us This is the question Wai Chee Dimock asks in Weak Planet proposing a way forward inspired by works that survive through kinship with strangers and with the nonhuman world Drawing on Native American studies disability studies and environmental humanities Dimock shows how hope can be found not in heroic statements but in incremental and unspectacular teamwork Reversing the usual focus on hegemonic institutions she highlights instead incomplete gestures given an afterlife with the help of others She looks at Louise Erdrich's and Sherman Alexie's user amended captivity narratives nontragic sequels to Moby Dick by C L R James Frank Stella and Amitav Ghosh induced forms of Irishness in Henry James Colm T ib n W B Yeats and Gish Jen and the experimentations afforded by a blurry Islam in works by Henri Matisse James Joyce Ezra Pound and Langston Hughes Celebrating literature's durability as an assisted outcome Weak Planet gives us new ways to think about our collective future Weak Planet invites us to reflect on the deep interconnections between two threatened extinctions that of the humanities and that of a host of animal species not least our own The book is nothing short of a radical reorientation of literary history Stephen Best author of None Like Us Blackness Belonging Aesthetic Life 2005, 2005, 2005, 2005, 2005 Paul Bowles's Literary Engagement with Morocco Bouchra Benlemlih, 2018-01-05 This study argues that Paul Bowles is more perceptive than many American travelers in Morocco The book provides us with what are perhaps the most sustained meditations to date on Bowles's translation work and his autobiography as well as perceptive analyses of key stories such as A Distant Episode and Here to Learn and his second novel Let It Come Down set primarily in Tangier The chapter on translation dwells on the complex interactions between Moroccan storytellers and Bowles The work considers translation as a site where the oral and written colonial and post colonial scene and English and Maghrebi come face to face it is a place where things are worked out in dynamic interaction The chapter on Bowles's autobiography Without Stopping urges us to take this piece of self writing famously dubbed Without Telling by William Burroughs more seriously drawing our attention to baroque architectural features of mind and external landscape worlds distorted by mirrors dreams and fluid transit where forms morph The work also highlights difference between experience and representation of experience through language transformed through the prism of memory In the chapter on Without Stopping as well as in my discussions of Bowles's fiction I provide useful elaborations of connections between Bowles's work and that of Edgar Allan Poe My reading of one of Bowles's best known stories A Distant Episode brings to the surface a recognition that the tragic fate of the Professor the story's protagonist is an outcome of his inability to admit that cultures are not static The academically trained linguist demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to adapt to change or to read cultural signs accurately The message is that Morocco is not stuck in time and cannot be held in place by Orientalist fantasies or preconceived externally derived intellectual constructs and assumptions The book concludes that against the grain of Samuel Huntington's notion of Clash of Civilizations Bowles's poetic and geographical journey forcefully projects cosmopolitanism and transnational attention confirming that civilizations and identities open up rather than shut down war or clash

The Magic of Morocco Tahar Ben Jelloun, Alain d' Hooghe, 2000 The magic of Morocco has enticed many visitors to its people and places Eugene Delacroix and Henri Matisse created some essential works there Paul Bowles William Burroughs Allen Ginsberg and Jack Kerouac all responded to the magnetic pull of Morocco its promising smiles its heady mix of passions its colors and beauties the music of the snake charmer the dust and perfume in the air the curves of dunes as far as the eye can see The magic of Morocco is a kind of poison yet it is the sweetest of poisons Photography has no parallel as a recorder of the split seconds of emotion and sensation and the photographers who have brought back the striking images in this book have themselves been drawn to Morocco from many different countries and cultures
