Viewer Responses to Interactive Narrative Sangyeob Lee,2004   Innovation, Profit and the Common Good in Higher Education J. Harpur,2010-07-30 University ethics is everyone s business and big business is what the university is all about whether in the US Europe or the rest of the world How this has come about is less important than that it has and is being taken very seriously by global and national forces The important issue confronting higher education is its assumed role in guaranteeing economic prosperity Governments are no longer content to let research leak out serendipitously into the economy The Post Industrial Society Information Society Knowledge Economy and Smart Economy require nothing less than commercially directed research producing innovatory products The public interest is reduced to economic measures The political social and moral implications of changing practices in the university are rarely acknowledged in the rise of the New Alchemy This book examines the resulting ambiguities and questionable evidence in favour of current polices

Communication Arts ,2003   I, Avatar Mark Stephen Meadows,2008 What is an avatar Why are there nearly a billion of them and who is using them Do avatars impact our real lives or are they just video game conceits Is an avatar an inspired rendering of its creator s inner self or is it just one among millions of anonymous vehicles clogging the online freeways Can we use our avatars to really connect with people or do they just isolate us And as we become more like our avatars do they become more like us InI Avatar Mark Stephen Meadows answers some of these questions but more importantly he raises hundreds of others in his exploration of avatars and the fascinating possibilities they hold His examination of avatars through the lenses of sociology psychology politics history and art he will change the way you look at even a simple online profile and revolutionize the idea of avatars as part of our lives whether first or second   Interpretive Play Anna O.
