Reflecting Diversity Multicultural Guidelines For Educational Publishing Professionals:

Reflecting Diversity Karen Baicker, Macmillan/McGraw-Hill School Division, 1993 Communication, Race, and Family Thomas J. Socha, Rhunette C. Diggs, 1999-08 This volume examines how family communication affects our understanding of race and race relations For scholars studying diversity issues intercultural communication family communication and related areas The Death and Resurrection of a Coherent Literature Curriculum Sandra Stotsky, 2012-06-16 This book is addressed to teachers who know that the secondary literature curriculum in our public schools is in shambles Unless experienced and well read English teachers can develop coherent and increasingly demanding literature curricula in their schools average high school students will remain at about the fifth or sixth grade reading level where they now are to judge from several independent sources This book seeks to challenge education policy makers test developers and educators who discourage the assignment of appropriately difficult works to high school students and make construction of a coherent literature curriculum impossible It first traces the history of the literature curriculum in our middle schools and high schools and shows how it has been diminished and distorted in the past half century It then offers examples of coherent literature curricula and spells out the cognitive principles upon which coherence is based Finally it suggests what English teachers in our public schools could do to develop a literature curriculum that gives all their students an adequate basis for participation in an English speaking civic culture Jeremiad Jottings Blaise Cronin, 2004 In his Jeremiad Jottings Blaise Cronin presents a collection of essays that touch upon a range of issues spanning from affirmative action to academic dress Tackling the ever increasing power that political correctness holds in institutions of higher education Cronin defines its influence by writing op ed style essays delving into sometimes highly divisive topics from recent news and events His essays encompass light hearted topics such as Mangled Metaphors pointing to the advertisement industry s use of metaphors and more popularly serious issues in Burned Any Good Books Lately an essay dealing with book burning Although easily approachable by the non scholar each of Cronin s essays is abundant with references that will lead any reader to the right area of interest if necessary Cronin s light tone and clear presentation will appeal to many readers

The Language Police Diane Ravitch, 2007-12-18 If you re an actress or a coed just trying to do a man size job a yes man who turns a deaf ear to some sob sister an heiress aboard her yacht or a bookworm enjoying a boy s night out Diane Ravitch s internationally acclaimed The Language Police has bad news for you Erase those words from your vocabulary Textbook publishers and state education agencies have sought to root out racist sexist and elitist language in classroom and library materials But according to Diane Ravitch a leading historian of education what began with the best of intentions has veered toward bizarre extremes At a time when we celebrate and encourage diversity young readers are fed bowdlerized texts devoid of the references that give these works their meaning and vitality With forceful arguments and sensible solutions for rescuing American education from the pressure groups that have made classrooms bland and uninspiring The Language

Assessment is Essential Susan Green, Robert L Johnson, 2009-05-27 Assessment is Essential offers a novel approach for educational assessment courses Stressing a practical approach that encourages students to think critically about designing the appropriate assessment for a wide range of situations Green provides students with tools they can use in their future classrooms Proceedings National Association for Multicultural Education, 1999 Thru the Eyes of Children Norton, 1998-09-24 Zeitgeist Simon Gage, Pauline Mullin, 1997 Getting Into the Mathematics Conversation Portia C. Elliott, Cynthia M. Elliott Garnett, 2008 Far from a run of the mill readings book Getting into the Mathematics Conversation is an outstanding compendium of the very best of the NCTM school journals offerings on the broad subject of communication in the mathematics classroom It spans all grade levels and targets all communication forms listening and speaking reading writing and multiple forms that a teacher might wish to develop in students Linguistics and the Education of Language Teachers James E. Alatis, 1995 Losing Our Language Sandra Stotsky, 2002 This book argues that it is the incorporation of a multicultural agenda into basal readers the primary tool for teaching reading in elementary schools that has stunted American children s ability to read The book shows how basal readers have been systematically dumbed down in an effort to raise minority students self esteem It contends that while elementary readers of the past featured excerpts from classic stories such as Arabian Nights and Robinson Crusoe with a complex vocabulary and sentence structure able to challenge the imagination and build reading skills today s basal readers present students with politically and ethnically correct stories whose language is virtually foreign and unable to engage students According to the book drawing words from Swahili Spanglish and other trendy dialects to teach students with a shrinking English vocabulary is a symptom of this intellectual and cultural disorder The book showcases interviews with teachers gives an in depth analysis of reading texts over the past 30 years and talks about how pressure groups have affected educational publishers It points out that literacy cultural and verbal gives all students but particularly those from poor or minority backgrounds personal independence and achievement and the ability to participate fully in civic life Each of the 11 chapters includes notes NKA Teaching Children Mathematics ,2001 Research in Geographic Education ,2009 The Social Studies Professional ,1989 MultiCultural Review ,1998
