Long Road To Teatime:

The Long Road to Teatime Anna Jackson, 2000-03-29 Teatime was when Anna Jackson had a moment of epiphany giving her a sense of family continuity and belonging as mother daughter sister sister in law friend niece cousin and granddaughter

Pasture and Flock: New and Selected Poems Anna Jackson, 2018-03-08 There are some poets you travel the routes of so often you could feel your way in the dark that turn that corner and then the plummet towards the end What does it give you after all to meet in person in a room A thought the dog doesn't share when having known the followed route the stored scent an affair of the air here is the other dog Incarnate Guesse and host Poets know words know routes know ghosts Uneasy nights out with dead Russian poets dalliances with German gasfitters and emotionally fraught games of badminton are brought together for the first time along with a brand new body of work in this time spanning selection of Anna Jackson's poetry Local gothic suburban pastoral and answerings back to literary icons are all enhanced by Jackson's light hand and sly humour Pastoral yet gritty intellectual and witty sweet but with stings in their tails the poems and sequences collected in Pasture and Flock are essential reading for both long term and new admirers of Jackson's slanted approach to lyric poetry

I, Clodia, and Other Portraits Anna Jackson, 2015-02-01 I Clodia is the story of Clodia Metelli poet and lover and her relations with her far away paramour Catullus with her husband Metellus Celer her brother Publius Clodius and her accuser Cicero By giving Clodia the Lesbia of Catullus's famous love poetry her own first person narration Anna Jackson upends and reinvigorates the beloved classical sequence with biting wit and tender attention Who was Clodia and what did she think about the affair the gossip the scandal the poems Jackson honours and subverts her source material in lines that are a marvel of ventriloquism The book's second section The photographer's secret furthers this superb exploration of voice and portrayal The photographer in this sequence reads writes gives presents and considers the art of portraiture But who is examining and who is being examined Above all else Anna Jackson takes us within and without a range of characters in her characteristically witty style sometimes mock breathless sometimes dryly pointed and always clever stylish and emotionally engaging If a photograph is a secret about a secret as Diane Arbus put it these poems are also secrets about lives about portraiture about those who have the power to record and betray
