Looking Backward Edward Bellamy,2016-01-28 LOOKING BACKWARD 2000 1887 is a utopian science fiction novel by Edward

Bellamy a journalist and writer from Chicopee Falls Massachusetts it was first published in 1888 It was the third largest bestseller of its time It influenced a large number of intellectuals Erich Fromm writes It is one of the few books ever published that created almost immediately on its appearance a political mass movement Bellamy s novel tells the story of a hero figure named Julian West a young American who towards the end of the 19th century falls into a deep hypnosis induced sleep and wakes up one hundred and thirteen years later He finds himself in the same location Boston Massachusetts but in a totally changed world It is the year 2000 and while he was sleeping the United States has been transformed into a socialist utopia The remainder of the book outlines Bellamy s thoughts about improving the future The major themes include problems associated with capitalism a proposed socialist solution of a nationalization of all industry the use of an industrial army to organize production and distribution as well as how to ensure free cultural production under such conditions In the United States alone over 162 Bellamy Clubs sprang up to discuss and propagate the book s ideas Owing to its commitment to the nationalization of private property and the desire to avoid use of the odious term Socialism this political movement came to be known as Nationalism not to be confused with the political concept of nationalism The novel also inspired several utopian communities

Looking Backward Edward Bellamy,2020-03-18 I first saw the light in the city of Boston in the year 1857 What you say eighteen fifty seven That is an odd slip He means nineteen fifty seven of course I beg pardon but there is no mistake It was about four in the afternoon of December the 26th one day after Christmas in the year 1857 not 1957 that I first breathed the east wind of Boston which I assure the reader was at that remote period marked by the same penetrating quality characterizing it in the present year of grace 2000 These statements seem so absurd on their face especially when I add that I am a young man apparently of about thirty years of age that no person can be blamed for refusing to read another word of what promises to be a mere imposition upon his credulity Nevertheless I earnestly assure the reader that no imposition is intended and will undertake if he shall follow me a few pages to entirely convince him of this If I may then provisionally assume with the pledge of justifying the assumption that I know better than the reader when I was born I will go on with my narrative As every schoolboy knows in the latter part of the nineteenth century the civilization of to day or anything like it did not exist although the elements which were to develop it were already in ferment Nothing had however occurred to modify the immemorial division of society into the four classes or nations as they may be more fitly called since the differences between them were far greater than those between any nations nowadays of the rich and the poor the educated and the ignorant I myself was rich and also educated and possessed therefore all the elements of happiness enjoyed by the most fortunate in that age Living in luxury and occupied only with the pursuit of the pleasures and refinements of life I derived the means of my support from the labor of others rendering no sort of service in return My parents and grand parents had lived in the same way and I expected that my descendants if I had any would enjoy a like easy existence
