Full Circle: Escape from Baghdad and the Return Saul Silas Fathi, 2005-09-14 AWARDS RECEIVED. In addition to being selected a finalist in Foreword Magazine, the book also won the 2005 Distinguished Honor Award from the Military Writers Society of America. Introduction: Full Circle: Escape from Baghdad and the Return chronicles a prominent Iraqi Jewish family's escape from persecution through the journey of one family member, a young boy who witnesses public hangings and the 1941 Krystallnacht Farhud in Baghdad. After a dangerous escape from Iraq, akin to a Sephardic Schindler's List, this ten-year-old begins a lifelong search for meaning and his place in the world. This journey takes him to the newly formed nation of Israel, then to Brazil, and eventually to the United States, where he serves in the US Army in Korea, works in top-level positions with three Fortune 500 companies, starts several businesses, and volunteers to assist the FBI after September 11, 2001. This chronicle strives to explore questions of meaning such as: Does hardship taint the lure of adventure for any young man? What sustains hope? Does a persecuted Jew ever feel at home anywhere? This young man's journey and subsequent identity crisis interfaces with historical happenings in the world and brings an understanding of the culture and contributions of Sephardic Jews. There has been much written about the Jewish population in Germany and Europe, and what they suffered, but little is known about Sephardic Jews who have also been persecuted in other countries, especially in Iraq, a country of which we as Americans have some familiarity but know very little about.
