Paul Travis 1891-1975:

Legendary Locals of Cleveland Thea Gallo Becker, 2012 In 1796 when Gen Moses Cleaveland founded the settlement on Lake Erie's shores that would become the city of Cleveland he opened the way for many dynamic visionary and diverse individuals who would not only help Cleveland prosper as one of the greatest cities in the Midwest but also give the city its unique character. Mobster Danny Greene's fate was sealed by a car bomb and his life was later immortalized in film. Vernon Stouffer helped revolutionize the frozen food industry and the way Americans eat. Almeda Adams refused to let her disability keep her from making contributions in education and music. And Zelma Watson George found success in theater and later politics as a goodwill ambassador and a delegate to the United Nations. Legendary Locals of Cleveland chronicles the fascinating stories of citizens who have impacted the city in political, social, philanthropic, business, educational, scientific, medical, entertainment, and even criminal areas. Paul Travis, 1891-1975 Henry Adams, Paul Bough Travis, 2001 Object Lessons Cleveland Museum of Art, 1991 Creative Essence Nina Freedlander Gibans, 2005 Examines regional culture through the contributions of visual arts and includes a DVD. Arising out of the Cleveland Artists Foundation's Dialogue Series, a 22-hour long collection of forums held in cultural institutions and broadcast on National Public Radio. Creative Essence examines regional culture through an exploration of the distinguished contributions Cleveland has made to the visual arts and architecture. The Dialogue Series brought together a variety of people in the visual arts community to discuss the development of the region's creative life and environment, whether it be through architecture and city planning or through the industrial and fine arts. They shared their views and knowledge about how regionalism has long influenced artistic productivity. Their exchanges and ideas for the future are provocative and thoughtful. Richly illustrated with the work of well-known Cleveland area artists and architects past and present. Creative Essence explores the region's tradition beginning with the Cleveland School of artists that was active and influential during the first half of the twentieth century. It moves on to examine the changes that occurred in the last half of the century and the development of the visual arts in northeast Ohio. Creative Essence is an important resource for understanding the significant role the visual arts play in our cities and societies and how they contribute to the region's quality of life. For those interested in regional history and for students of art history and the visual arts, this will be especially valuable. South of the Sahara Constantijn Petridis, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2003 Petridis examines the relationship between contemporary and so-called traditional arts and presents examples showing that many African works were originally part of an ensemble or one element of a performance. Transformations in Cleveland Art, 1796-1946 William H. Robinson, David Steinberg, 1996 The show's thoughtful, well-written, lavishly illustrated catalog should become the instant classic on Cleveland art. The Cleveland Plain Dealer The Art of Painting Animals Fredric Sweney, 1983 A Guide to Major Manuscript Collections Accessioned and Processed by the Library of the Western Reserve Historical Society Since 1970 Western Reserve Historical Society.
