The Persuasive Preacher David A. Christensen,2020-07-16 How can we preach persuasively without huckstering manipulating or coercing people Sadly we are seeing the fall of many pastors not for reasons of sexual immorality but the pursuit of pride and power The skillful use of marketing methods creates celebrity pastors who become significant influencers in the evangelical church The lure of success is seductive turning pastors into hucksters and Christians into consumers We need to heed the warnings of the New Testament about the pride of rhetoric and the pursuit of power David Christensen carefully analyzes the biblical warnings of Paul about the temptations of rhetorical sophistry in the first century church and applies them to pastoral ministry today God calls preachers to be ethical and effective persuaders David develops an ethical grid for pastoral persuasion using principles drawn from the Bible and social science along with practical illustrations from his years of ministry He calls preachers to be ethical and effective persuaders by emphasizing the centrality of the word of God while depending on the power of the Spirit of God

Paul, Corinth, and the Roman Empire Panayotis Coutsoumpos,2015-08-11 Paul s letter to the Corinthians provides an exclusive quick look into the social and political life of a young Christian congregation in a Greco Roman environment during the early decades when Christianity was emerging The letter provides a range and richness of information regarding the early church that is unparalleled by any other writing in the New Testament Much effort has gone into reconstructing the Christian church at Corinth more recently attention has focused on the Corinthian congregation itself and its influence towards the community of the Roman Empire The scholarly picture of the Corinthian community throughout the period of modern interpretation has been far from constant It has been continually altered as interpretative fashions have changed

Branded Faith Rajkumar Dixit,2010-06-07 Christianity may be the greatest story ever told but in Western culture it is losing ground against the powerful forces of secularization In examining the root causes of this cultural shift does the church have anything to learn from secular society and the business sector For decades the church has resisted the idea of using business methodologies in the religious sphere Yet a closer look reveals that most church hierarchies have borrowed much of their organizational structure from the business sector But the church is not alone in its borrowing Today the lines between the church and the business sector are blurred as both entities influence each other interchangeably In Branded Faith Rajkumar Dixit enters an engaging and intellectually stimulating analysis of what the church can learn from the business practices of marketing branding and contextualization Using examples drawn from widely recognized companies such as Nike Starbucks Coca Cola and Subway Dixit systematically builds a case for the power of a story and emphasizes the importance of seeking culturally relevant ways to spread it Those who care deeply about sharing Christianity powerfully and effectively will find in Branded
