Snow Globe Tonya K. Davidson, 2024-05-16 The toppling of monuments globally in the last few years has highlighted the potency of monuments as dynamic and affectively loaded participants in society In the context of Ottawa Canada's capital city monuments inspire colonial and imperial nostalgia compelling visitors to consistently re imagine Canada as a white Anglophone nation built through the labour of white men politicians soldiers and businessmen At the same time Ottawa monuments allow for dominant affective relationships to the nation to be challenged demonstrated through subtle and explicit forms of defacement and other interactions that compel us to remember colonial violence pacifism violence against women racisms Organized as a series of walking tours throughout Ottawa the chapters in Tours Inside the Snow Globe demonstrate the affective capacities of monuments and highlight how these monuments have ongoing relationships with their sites the city other monuments and local deliberate national and casual communities of users The tours focus on the lives of a monument to an unnamed Indigenous scout the National War Memorial Enclave the Women's Monument and the Canadian Tribute to Human Rights Two of the tours offer analyses of the ambivalent representations of women and Indigeneity in Ottawa's statue landscape      Genii, 1958      Confederate Veteran, 1902      Poetical Dust Thomas A.
Prendergast, 2015-11-12 In the South Transept of Westminster Abbey in London the bodies of more than seventy men and women primarily writers poets and playwrights are interred with many more memorialized From the time of the reburial of Geoffrey Chaucer in 1556 the space has become a sanctuary where some of the most revered figures of English letters are celebrated and remembered Poets Corner is now an attraction visited by thousands of tourists each year but for much of its history it was also the staging ground for an ongoing debate on the nature of British cultural identity and the place of poetry in the larger political landscape Thomas Prendergast's Poetical Dust offers a provocative far reaching and witty analysis of Poets Corner Covering nearly a thousand years of political and literary history the book examines the chaotic sometimes fitful process through which Britain has consecrated its poetry and poets Whether exploring the several burials of Chaucer the politicking of Alexander Pope or the absence of William Shakespeare Prendergast asks us to consider how these relics attest to the vexed melancholy ties between the literary corpse and corpus His thoughtful sophisticated discussion reveals Poets Corner to be not simply a centuries old destination for pilgrims and tourists alike but a monument to literary fame and the inevitable decay of the bodies it has both rejected and celebrated      Rights in Concord: the Response to the Counter-inaugural Protest Activities in Washington, D.C., January 18-20, 1969 United States. Task Force on Law and Law Enforcement, 1969 Pictorial account of confrontations between government officials police and demonstrators Preparations by antiwar groups for the demonstration are outlined as well as preparations by the various Washington police agencies The major events of the counter inaugural protests are related Due to restraint and good faith on the part of law enforcement officers and the majority of the demonstrators violence was kept to a minimum "Magic," Black and White; Charms and Counter Charms Thomas Witton Davies, Lauron William De Laurence, 1910 Rights in Concord Joseph R.
