Seraphine Highlands every werewolf knows the truth the moon chooses our mates but sometimes it chooses the wrong one For centuries the Moonlit Pack has endured broken alliances bitter wars and betrayals carved into history like scars I learned early that survival meant hiding who you are beneath claws beneath whispers beneath the hunt I refused the call of destiny I refused to be marked I refused to trust fate Then she fell She wasn't mine by blood Not by pack law Not at all The first time I saw her was in the aftermath of a massacre human villagers slaughtered by a rogue beast no one could identify Marina Cross was searching for her missing brother in the ruins unarmed and stubborn her voice echoing with fear and fury The moment her scent hit the wind across the battlefield my wolf howled claimed declared attached It was as though the moon itself had ripped open my chest and dragged my heart into the open I fought it I ran But the bond has teeth that don't let go Weeks later Marina walked into the Moonlit Pack's territory not as prey not as a threat but as a hunter Sent by a cryptic organization sworn to eliminate every werewolf trace from the world she believed all wolves were monsters She wanted answers not mercy And I wanted her alive The moment she learned what I was everything she believed every accusation fear and hatred shattered in the face of her own truth her brother had been taken by the Black Fang Pack a rogue faction planning to slaughter every pack under the new moon Now the hunter must trust the worst monster she's ever hunted and the wolf must protect the one he was never supposed to love As venomous secrets unravel and ancient rites demand justice we discover that some bonds don't break at will some fated mates aren't meant to be easy and real love is forged in nightmares not starlight To save her brother I'll have to confront the fury of rival packs the betrayal within my own bloodline and the truth that the moon never chooses for comfort it chooses for change When the final blood moon rises we must either break the chains of our fate together or die as promised mates torn apart But I swear this I will carve our destiny out of eclipse and fire even if it costs me everything
