Rev. James Kelly

Preaching The Atonement:

Preaching the Atonement Peter Stevenson, Stephen Wright, 2005-12-01 Preaching the Atonement explores some classic texts which throw light on the atonement Each chapter focuses on a key Biblical passage offering a theological commentary which will help both preachers and church members gain a deeper understanding The Atonement David L. Allen, 2019-04-01 In this accessible resource author David L Allen carefully summarizes the doctrine of the atonement with definitions of key terms discussion of key Old and New Testament texts and a survey of the historical theories of the atonement The Atonement, as taught by the Church of England: A Sermon Edward Hoare, 2019-12-19 In The Atonement as taught by the Church of England A Sermon Edward Hoare explores the nuanced theological understanding of atonement within the Anglican tradition This work employs a reflective and didactic literary style weaving together scriptural exegesis with doctrinal clarity aimed at elucidating the Church's stance on the pivotal theme of reconciliation with God Situated against the backdrop of 19th century Anglican thought the sermon addresses contemporary debates concerning redemption and sacrifice all while remaining deeply rooted in the historical teachings of the Church of England Edward Hoare a prominent figure in the ecclesiastical realm of his time was known for his insightful engagement with religious doctrine and its implications for moral living His commitment to the Anglican faith and his scholarly pursuits are evident in his writings which often sought to bridge personal piety with institutional theology The context of his era marked by religious fervor and reexamination of traditional beliefs undoubtedly influenced Hoare's approach to atonement as he aspired to provide both clarity and comfort to his congregation This sermon is highly recommended for readers interested in theological exploration particularly those seeking to understand the Anglican perspective on atonement Hoare's articulate prose and thoughtful approach make it a valuable resource for both clergy and laypeople alike fostering a deeper understanding of one of Christianity's most essential doctrines The Atonement Debate Zondervan, 2009-05-26 Recent days have seen a debate among evangelicals over how the death of Christ is to be interpreted When a popular British evangelical leader appeared to denounce the idea that God was punishing Christ in our place on the cross as a twisted version of events morally dubious and a huge barrier to faith that should be rejected in favour of preaching only that God is love major controversy was stirred Many thought the idea of penal substitution was at the heart of the evangelical understanding of the cross if not the only legitimate interpretation of the death of Christ Yet for some time less popular evangelical theologians had been calling this traditional interpretation of the atonement into question So is the traditional evangelical view of penal substitution the biblical explanation of Christ's death or one of many Is it the non negotiable heart of evangelical theology or a time bound explanation that has outlived its usefulness What does the cross say about the character of God the nature of the law and sin the meaning of grace and our approach to missions The public debate which resulted was often heated In order to act as reconcilers the Evangelical Alliance and the London School of Theology called for a symposium in which advocates of the different positions could engage with each other The symposium which was attended by some 200 participants was held when the July 7th bombings took place in London and drew together many of Britain s finest evangelical theologians This book contains the collection of papers given at the symposium supplemented by a few others for the sake of rounding out the agenda and grouped in convenient sections

Nature of the Atonement James Murdock,1823 Preaching on the Atonement ,1957 The Atonement R. W. Dale,1894 The Glory of the Atonement Charles E. Hill, Frank A. James III,2004-03-30 Editors Charles E Hill and Frank A James III bring together a group of evangelical biblical scholars and historical and systematic theologians to explore the doctrine of the atonement for a new millennium The Atonement in New Testament Teaching Vincent Taylor,2009-05-19 In this book Dr Taylor develops more fully the treatment of the doctrine of the Atonement set out in the closing section of his earlier work Jesus and His Sacrifice Here he examines the whole of the New Testament evidence relating to the Atonement and attempts a constructive statement of the theory in which attention is given to points which require further elucidation and treatment The aim throughout is practical and the method positive

The Extent of the Atonement David L. Allen,2016-06-01 The extent of Christ s atoning work on the cross is one of the most divisive issues in evangelical Christianity In The Extent of the Atonement A Historical and Critical Review David L Allen makes a biblical historical theological and practical case for a universal atonement Through a comprehensive historical survey Allen contends that universal atonement has always been the majority view of Christians and that even among Calvinist theologians there is a considerable range of views Marshalling evidence from Scripture and history and critiquing arguments for a limited atonement Allen affirms that an unlimited atonement is the best understanding of Christ s saving work He concludes by showing that an unlimited atonement provides the best foundation for evangelism missions and preaching

The Cross from a Distance Peter G. Bolt,2016-03-11 In this New Studies in Biblical Theology exploration of Mark s Gospel Peter G Bolt looks at why the cross is so prominent in the narrative asks what contribution Mark s teaching can make to our understanding of the atonement and shows how this teaching can inform correct and enrich our own preaching of the gospel in the contemporary world The Day of Atonement Charles Haddon Spurgeon,1856* The Atonement Leon L. Morris,1984-04-06 Leon Morris examines the rich variety of New Testament terms used to describe the significance of Christ s death and resurrection The Atonement Rev. James Kelly,1859 The Theory of Preaching Austin Phelps,1881 It Is Well Mark Dever, Michael Lawrence,2010-04-01 The idea of Christ s substitutionary atonement for sinners is central in both the Old and New Testaments from the Passover to the prophets to the words of Jesus and the apostles In It Is Well pastors Mark Dever and Michael Lawrence demonstrate how the atonement is clearly taught throughout Scripture Starting with Exodus 12 and moving through other key Old Testament passages into the Gospels and the epistles of Paul and Peter the authors offer careful expositions on fourteen crucial texts As they speak to important issues such as what happens when there is no substitute for sin why God forsook Christ Jesus perspective on his substitutionary work and the necessity and benefits of the atonement they show how much the doctrine applies to the Christian life It Is Well not only encourages pastors to preach this essential doctrine for the strengthening of the church but it helps individual believers understand and exult in the richness of God s love in Christ Part of the 9Marks series The Gospel of the Atonement James Maurice Wilson,1899 The Bible Doctrine of Salvation - A Study of the Atonement C. Ryder Smith,2013-04-18 Contents Include Psychological Presuppositions THE OLD TESTAMENT Some Permanent Concepts From Moses to Elisha The Hebrew Messiah The Written Prophets The Psalms of Suffering and Sin The Post Exilic Sacrifices THE OLD TESAMENT AND AFTER Eschatology and Apocalyptic Mediation Sin and Repentance THE NEW TESTAMENT The Postulates and Preaching of John the Baptist Salvation in the Synoptic Gospels The General Apostolic Preaching The Servant The Lamb and the Sheperd The Teaching of St Paul The Epistle to the Hebrews The Gospel and Epistles of John The Doctrine of Atonement Illustrated and Defended Daniel Veysie,1795 Correspondence of John Henry Newman with John Keble and Others, 1839-1845 John Henry Newman,1917
