Random Passage:

Waiting for Time Bernice Morgan, 1994 This sequel to Random Passage continues the saga of the inhabitants of Cape Random. It also tells the story of today's Newfoundland, a place where the past overshadows the present and shapes the future. Lave Andrews, a young professional sent from Ottawa to assess the fisheries crisis, discovers her roots as she explores the province.

Pathways of Creativity in Contemporary Newfoundland and Labrador María Jesús Hernández Lerena, 2015-09-18 The Canadian province of Newfoundland and Labrador is a mythologized place that resonates with tragic adventure, polar expeditions, and Grand Banks fishing, a real and imagined geography with an incredible artistic output that calls for critical discussion. This book examines the diversity of this province's literature and culture, taking into consideration the expertise of scholars and writers who have first-hand knowledge of its unique context. Chapters on history, travel, fiction, autobiography, poetry, theatre, storytelling, filmmaking, and the visual arts provide an up-to-date survey across a broad range of artistic endeavours, as well as close readings of selected texts. The questions that fill the pages of Pathways of Creativity in Contemporary Newfoundland and Labrador arise from the awareness its contributors have of historically shared experiences, but also of shared delusions, and their essays provoke contemplation beyond the labels local, global, Newfoundlander. Come From Away, Aboriginal histories, and writing come to the foreground in this panoramic view that balances descriptions of mainstream vernacular and Indigenous cultural productions. The final chapter is organized as a multi-voiced interview which serves as a supplement to the academic essays. Here, themes are revisited and personalized as several writers express their feelings about what it means to be a Newfoundlander and an artist. As such, this book will encourage dialogue about Newfoundland and Labrador's literary and artistic achievements within the international community of readers and researchers.

Writing the Everyday Danielle Fuller, 2004-10-13 Prose works examined include Bernice Morgan's best-selling novel Random Passage, short stories by Helen Porter and Governor General's award winner Joan Clark, as well as poetry by Mi kmaq Elder Rita Joe and People's Poet Maxine Tynes, and the adult work of well-known children's author Sheree Fitch. Fuller demonstrates how these writers overturn regional stereotypes to present a complex and intriguing portrait of women's lives in Canada's most eastern provinces.
