Question Concerning Technology And Other Essays:

The Question Concerning Technology, and Other Essays Martin Heidegger, 1982-01-19 To read Heidegger is to set out on an adventure The essays in this volume intriguing challenging and often baffling to the reader call him always to abandon all superficial scanning and to enter wholeheartedly into the serious pursuit of thinking Heidegger is not a primitive or a romantic He is not one who seeks escape from the burdens and responsibilities of contemporary life into serenity either through the re-creating of some idyllic past or through the exalting of some simple experience Finally Heidegger is not a foe of technology and science He neither disdains nor rejects them as though they were only destructive of human life The roots of Heidegger's thinking lie deep in the Western philosophical tradition Yet that thinking is unique in many of its aspects in its language and in its literary expression In the development of this thought Heidegger has been taught chiefly by the Greeks by German idealism by phenomenology and by the scholastic theological tradition In him these and other elements have been fused by his genius of sensitivity and intellect into a very individual philosophical expression William Lovitt from the Introduction

The Will to Technology and the Culture of Nihilism Arthur Kroker, 2004-01-01 In The Will to Technology and the Culture of Nihilism Arthur Kroker explores the future of the 21st century in the language of technological destiny Presenting Martin Heidegger

Karl Marx and Friedrich Nietzsche as prophets of technological nihilism Kroker argues that every aspect of contemporary culture society and politics is coded by the dynamic unfolding of the will to technology Moving between cultural history our digital present and the biotic future Kroker theorizes on the relationship between human bodies and posthuman technology and more specifically wonders if the body of work offered by thinkers like Heidegger Marx and Nietzsche is a part of our past or a harbinger of our technological future Heidegger Marx and Nietzsche intensify our understanding of the contemporary cultural climate Heidegger's vision posits an increasingly technical society before which we have become objectless objects driftworks in a culture of boredom In Marx the disciplining of capital itself by the will to technology is a code of globalization first announced as streamed capitalism Nietzsche mediates between them envisioning in the gathering shadows of technological society the emergent signs of a culture of nihilism Like Marx he insists on thinking of the question of technology in terms of its material signs In The Will to Technology and the Culture of Nihilism Kroker consistently enacts an invigorating and innovative vision bringing together critical theory art and politics to reveal the philosophic apparatus of technoculture

Posthuman Suffering and the Technological Embrace Anthony Miccoli, 2010-01-01 Posthuman Suffering investigates the core assumptions of posthumanist discourse via philosophy cultural studies psychoanalytic theory and close textual and filmic readings of Thomas Pynchon's The Crying of Lot 49 Don DeLillo's White Noise and Steven Spielberg's film AI Artificial Intelligence bringing the more ontological and epistemological implications of posthumanism to the forefront In the age of technology our own limitations are legitimized as unique to the human condition

The Movement of Nihilism Laurence Paul Hemming, Kostas Amiridis, Bogdan Costea, 2011-03-03 When Nietzsche announced the advent of nihilism in 1887-88 he argued that he was sketching the history of the next two centuries For some time now he wrote our whole European culture has been moving as toward catastrophe restlessly violently headlong like a river that want to reach the end that no longer reflects that is afraid to reflect Can we gain a ground for reflection upon our own condition Can we heed Nietzsche's warning Can we respond to the challenge In this book eleven newly commissioned essays from leading scholars offer an attempt to grasp Nietzsche's prescience through Heidegger's critique of it attempting to think through the philosophical consequences of the last century in reading the signs of our own condition The book also provides a fascinating and unique discussion of some of the lesser known texts of the later Heidegger

The Existentialist Legacy and Other Essays on Philosophy and Religion James Woelfel, 2006-04-05 The Existentialist Legacy and Other Essays on Philosophy and Religion is a collection of ten essays on topics in the two primary areas of the author's research and teaching existentialist philosophy and the philosophy of religion The common thread running through the essays is a way of approaching issues in philosophy and religion that reflects the author's career long indebtedness to the methods and emphases of the existentialist movement in philosophy Among the essay topics are studies of the existentialist legacy in the context of the contemporary situation in the sciences and humanities Iris Murdoch's sympathetic but narrowly Sartrean

interpretation of existentialism the congeniality of existentialism and feminism the problem with high existentialist doctrines of freedom three philosophical autobiographies a new look at Pascal's Wager as a description of the situation of the modern believer theistic evolutionism including a Christian existentialism and Walter Kaufmann as an existentialist manqué in his heretical approach to religion Design Issues, 2007 Review of Existential Psychology and Psychiatry, 1978

Human Existence Before God Dieudonné Mbiribindi Bahati, 2020-09-15 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2019 in the subject Philosophy Miscellaneous grade 1 University of Innsbruck Christliche Philosophie language English abstract In our study we do not just demonstrate that the analysis of Dasein in the philosophical project of the first Heidegger was necessary and prior to the understanding of the question of the meaning of being but also we explained in the other section of our research that the philosophical project of the second Heidegger regarding the question of the meaning of being intended to demonstrate that there is a relationship between Dasein and God a relationship which connects the question of the meaning of being not just to the truth of being through das Ereignis but also to the event of the poetic God in the light of the being Die Lichtung des Seins This new understanding of the development of the philosophy of Martin Heidegger offers a possibility to systematize the relationship between philosophy and theology in the thinking of Martin Heidegger On one hand we explained that no one can deny the theological origin of Martin Heidegger and his theological affiliations On the other hand we also showed how throughout his life Heidegger reacted against a theology that is too philosophically influenced and wanted to make clear that his thinking should be either theistic or atheistic and never both at the same time It has to be a discourse about God which is not the return to the old onto theology but it requires that one constructs a more poetic discourse about God and attempts to interpret the divine and the sacred not as God as such but as names that one uses to refer to God This poetic discourse however has some relevancies in a Christian tradition especially if one looks at the concept of revelation of the undescribed Last God which is close to the understanding of revelation in the Christian tradition The second part of our study tried to ask the question of being but in a new perspective according to the method of transcendental philosophy We have emphasized how indeed there is a link between the existential phenomenology of Martin Heidegger and the research in neo scholastic Joseph Mar chal J B Lotz K Rahner and Emerich Coreth Otto Muck all Jesuits Fathers thought about the question of being as the foundation of beings as the foundation of what is there It is a sort of a further development of the ontology of Heidegger in the perspective of Christian philosophy and theology Gendered Bodies and New Technologies Amanda Du Preez, 2009 In this era of ubiquitous information flow heightened mobility and limitless consumer convenience human interaction with new technologies has become increasingly seamless In the process the human body is effectively and steadily reduced to just another interface or a second life so to speak What is easily forgotten during this translucent transaction is that being human also necessarily implies being embodied In other words to constitute a body in its non negotiable physicality is still what it entails to be human amongst other things To live daily in and through the complicated and dynamic intersection between mind and body psychology and physiology also known as embodiment is what makes us human

Philosophy of Education Philosophy of Education Society (U.S.). Meeting, 1986

European Discourses on Rights Lubica Učník, 2003 By tracing the theoretical genealogy of such ideas as reason natural and historical rights the individual nation and the state Lubica U n k argues that we need to come to terms with the conceptual framework of the Enlightenment in order to understand the relationship between nationalism and liberalism The author claims that the foundation of our knowledge is embedded in the modern concept of the individual She argues that there are two different models of individualism One is predicated on the mechanistic universe of causation and defined by the idea of negative liberty the other theorises the individual as relational and hence social These two conceptions of the individual are tied to different concepts of rights The idea of nation is likewise contained in the notion of the individual Once again there are two possible approaches Using the example of the splitting of Czecho Slovakia the concept of historical right theorised by the German Historical School of Recht is elaborated After the First World War the idea of natural right as advanced by the Treaty of Versailles promised a sense of legality to all nations living in Central Eastern Europe Now two concepts natural right and historical right provide a basis for the claim of each nation to its own state The complexity of the political situation in Europe after 1989 thus has to be interpreted differently
