Queensland Frontier:

Conspiracy of Silence Timothy Bottoms, 2013-05-27 As Europeans moved into new lands in Queensland in the 19th century violent encounters with local Aboriginals mostly followed Drawing on extensive original research Timothy Bottoms tells the story of the most violent frontier in Australian colonial history Queensland's Frontier Wars Jack Drake, 2021-06-11 Queensland's Frontier Wars is an attempt to document the known confrontations between either white settlers or white and native police and First Nations people where deaths were reported It is now an accepted premise that these confrontations were wars to gain access to the land because if not wars then it was mass murder No one in Queensland was charged with the murder of First Nations during these confrontations The book shows the invasion from New South Wales into southern Queensland and the advances from the sea in central and north Queensland The dispersment of the First Nations people from their land was violent and efficient using far superior weaponry This book adds significantly to the true and uncomfortable history of Queensland Civilian-Driven Violence and the Genocide of Indigenous Peoples in Settler Societies Mohamed Adhikari, 2021-07-12 Existing studies of settler colonial genocides explicitly consider the roles of metropolitan and colonial states and their military forces in the perpetration of exterminatory violence in settler colonial situations yet rarely pay specific attention to the dynamics around civilian driven mass violence against indigenous peoples In many cases however civilians were major if not the main perpetrators of such violence The focus of this book is thus on the role of civilians as perpetrators of exterminatory violence and on those elements within settler colonial situations that promoted mass violence on their part Warra Warra Wai Darren Rix, Craig Cormick, 2024-09-04 Shortlisted for the Queensland Literary Awards Work of State Significance and The University of Queensland Non Fiction Book Award Shortlisted for the 2025 Prime Minister's Literary Awards Australian History Winner of the 2025 NSW History Award Australian History Prize Winner of the 2025 Marion ACT Literary Award Non Fiction Winner of the First Nations History Award Canberra Critics Circle Awards 2024 Winner of the 2025 ACT Book of the Year Award For the first time the First Nations story of Cook's arrival and what blackfellas want everyone to know about the coming of Europeans Both 250 years late and extremely timely this is an account of what First Nations people saw and felt when James Cook navigated their shores in 1770 We know the European story from diaries journals and letters For the first time this is the other side Who were the people watching the Endeavour sail by How did they understand their world and what sense did they make of this strange vision And what was the impact of these first encounters with Europeans The answers lie in tales passed down from 1770 and in truth telling of the often more brutal engagements that followed Darren Rix a Gunditjmara GunaiKurnai man radio reporter and Archie Roach's nephew and his co author Craig Cormick travelled to all the places on the east coast that were renamed by Cook and listened to people's stories With their permission these stories have been woven together with the European accounts and placed in their deeper context the places Cook named already had names the places he discovered already had peoples and stories stretching back before time and although Cook sailed on the empire he represented impacted the people's lives and lands immeasurably in the years after Warra Warra Wai was the expression called to Cook and his crew when they tried to make landfall in Botany Bay It has long been interpreted as Go away but is perhaps more accurately translated as You are all dead spirits In adding the First Nations version of these first encounters to the story of Australian history this is a book that will sit on Australian shelves alongside Cook's Journals Dark Emu and The Fatal Shore as one of our foundational texts From the Edge Mark McKenna,2016-10-03 In March 1797 five British sailors and 12 Bengali seamen struggled ashore after their longboat broke apart in a storm Their fellow survivors from the wreck of the Sydney Cove were stranded more than 500 kilometres southeast in Bass Strait To rescue their mates and to save themselves the 19 men must walk 700 kilometres north to Sydney That remarkable walk is a story of endurance but also of unexpected Aboriginal help From the Edge Australia's Lost Histories recounts four such extraordinary and largely forgotten stories the walk of shipwreck survivors the founding of a new Singapore in western Arnhem Land in the 1840s Australia's largest industrial development project nestled amongst outstanding Indigenous rock art in the Pilbara and the ever changing story of James Cook's time in Cooktown in 1770 This new telling of the central drama of Australian history the encounter between Aboriginal and non Aboriginal Australians may hold the key to understanding this land and its people The ^AOxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Indigenous Australia and New Guinea Ian J. McNiven,Bruno David,2023-12-05 The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Indigenous Australia and New Guinea reviews and brings together the latest findings on the archaeology of the Australia New Guinea region In 42 new chapters commissioned for this book 77 leading researchers present the archaeological evidence for Australia and New Guinea's deep time history The stories told reveal the astounding richness of Australia and New Guinea's Indigenous cultural history stories of tens of thousands of years of Aboriginal Torres Strait Islander and New Guinean adaptation cultural know how and creative ingenuity The Web of Empire Sir Donald Mackenzie Wallace,1903 Empire, Colony, Genocide A. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
