Not One More Mothers Child Tr:

PROOF AUSTRALIA IS CHILD TRAFFICKING MACHINE Wendell Charles NeSmith, 2025-12-07 The Machine A Forensic Exposure of Australia's Institutional Trafficking For thirty two years a hidden war has been waged against the children of Australia shielded by the very institutions sworn to protect them In this explosive exposé Wendell Charles NeSmith presents a meticulously documented case against a multi billion dollar child protection industry that functions as a legalized trafficking apparatus Moving beyond theory this book provides a clinical look at the systemic mechanics used to separate families and profit from the removal of the innocent It reveals how the state utilizes The Industry of Removal How the child protection framework operates as a profit driven machine treating children as commodities for federal and private funding Institutional Coordination The documented patterns of how government agencies legal systems and psychiatric institutions coordinate to suppress whistleblowers and maintain the flow of the trafficking machine The Silence of the State An analysis of the legislative bans and social media restrictions designed to isolate the next generation and prevent the digital exposure of institutional crimes Forensic Evidence A summary of a life's work drawn from a massive archive of 75 000 emails and internal records proving that these are not isolated failures but a calibrated system of control This is the ultimate assessment of a hostile node in global civilization It is a call for the total sovereignty of the family unit and a blueprint for the IVORY framework a universal model to dismantle the trafficking machine and ensure that not one more child is lost to the system The receipts are permanent The evidence is undeletable The machine is being exposed

Casualty of War Luisa Lang Owen, 2002-11-19 Not all casualties of war die on the battlefield In the wake of World War II Yugoslavia purged its territory of the ethnic Germans who had formed a part of its human mosaic Tattered with their ethnic origins and the conscription of their fighting age men into the Waffen SS the Volksdeutsche as these settlers were called were rounded up at the war's end and herded into concentration camps Those who were not murdered or did not die from the harsh conditions were expelled from the village homes their families had known and loved for three hundred years Nine years old when she entered the concentration camp in 1945 author Luisa Lang Owen survived the persecution of the Danube Swabians eventually finding herself in America where she made a new life for herself a life that nonetheless held within it the memories and lessons of the atrocities she had experienced in her homeland Like thousands of other Germans in the Danube Valley at the end of the war Luisa and her family were chased from their home lodged in a sheep stall and resettled in camps with other Germans from her village Shorn of their possessions given little food or fuel pressed into hard labor beaten by guards and separated from their families many despaired and many died Luisa barely survived as others succumbed to malnutrition disease and exposure Her haunting memoir provides a window into the ethnic cleansing that preceded the recent exterminations in Bosnia and Kosovo by fifty years an episode of horrors that has not appeared as even a footnote in descriptions of the more recent atrocities practiced in that region Her testament as a casualty of war bears historic witness and gives insight into the personal experiences of ethnic cleansing It stands as witness to a massive crime that has been conveniently forgotten a corrective to a bit of neglect that did away with its victims as a people and a personal depiction of what ethnic cleansing is really about The problem was not just that they did not want us to have or to be Luisa Lang Owen writes they wanted us not to have been The hand of destiny; or, The life of Marianne, by P.C. de Chamblet [sic] de Marivaujx, tr. by sir G. Campbell Pierre Carlet de Chamblain de Marivaux,1889 Modern Slavery Laura J. Lederer,2018-02-08 This book provides a sobering look at modern day slavery which includes sex trafficking domestic servitude and other forms of forced labor and documents the development of the modern anti slavery movement from grassroots activism to the passage of anti slavery laws Slavery was formally abolished across most of the world by the end of the 19th century but it continues to lurk in the shadows of the modern world As with slavery of yesteryear modern slavery hinges on the exploitation of vulnerable populations and especially women and children The result is the same as in bygone centuries when slavery was practiced in the open unimaginable misery for those exploited and financial gain for the exploiter Modern Slavery A Documentary and Reference Guide is an invaluable resource for students researchers academics policymakers community leaders and others who want to learn about modern day slavery Covering forms of modern slavery that include sex trafficking labor trafficking and domestic servitude the book provides a complete examination of the modern day anti slavery movement Its coverage includes historical antecedents the various and sometimes opposing schools of thought about how to combat modern slavery and the legislative processes that united them and resulted in a groundbreaking approach to combating human trafficking The book uses primary source material including survivor stories witness testimony case law and other materials to discuss the nature and scope of modern day slavery the grassroots movement to stop it and U S leadership in the international arena Examples of primary source material include the Trafficking Victims Protection Reauthorization Act 2005 remarks and statements from Presidents Bush Clinton and Obama on human trafficking and modern slavery the United Nations Office of Drugs and Crime report A Global Report on Trafficking in Persons 2009 excerpts from the U S Department of State Trafficking in Persons Report including harrowing victims stories from around the world 2013 and 2014 and excerpts from 2015 Senate hearings including testimony from Holly Austin Smith trafficking survivor and from Malika Saada Saar Human Rights Project for Girls The Medical Times and Register ,1889 Primary Education ,1905 T.
