

With mind distracted, never thinking, "Death is coming," To slave away on the pointless business of mundane life, And then to come out empty--it is a tragic error. (116) trans

Not Thinking Of Death:

The Life of Samuel Johnson James Boswell,1911      A Man of Little Faith Michel Deguy,2014-11-19 A poetic and philosophical negotiation of the alternatives of atheism and religious faith In A Man of Little Faith the French poet and philosopher Michel Deguy reflects on the loss of religious faith both personally and culturally Disenchanted not only with the oversimplifications of radical atheism but also with what he sees as an insipid sacralization of art as the influence of religion has waned Deguy refuses to focus on loss or impossibility Instead he actively suspends belief producing a poetic deconstruction that though resolutely a theistic makes a plea for an earthly piety and for the preservation of the relics of religion for the world to come Two essays by Jean Luc Nancy and a recent interview with Deguy are included which reveal the impact and implications of Deguy s ongoing reflection and its significance within his generation of French thought
