On Order And Things:

The Order of Things Michel Foucault, 1994-03-29 With vast erudition Foucault cuts across disciplines and reaches back into seventeenth century to show how classical systems of knowledge which linked all of nature within a great chain of being and analogies between the stars in the heavens and the features in a human face gave way to the modern sciences of biology philology and political economy The result is nothing less than an archaeology of the sciences that unearths old patterns of meaning and reveals the shocking arbitrariness of our received truths In the work that established him as the most important French thinker since Sartre Michel Foucault offers startling evidence that man man as a subject of scientific knowledge is at best a recent invention the result of a fundamental mutation in our culture

Fugate, John Hymers, 2018-05-24

Baumgarten and Kant on Metaphysics explores the metaphysics of Alexander Gottlieb Baumgarten 1714-1762 and its decisive influence on Immanuel Kant. For over a century scholars have recognized the significance of Baumgarten's Metaphysics both because of its impact on Kant's intellectual development and because of the way it fundamentally informed the work of generations of German philosophers including Moses Mendelssohn, Thomas Abbt, Johann Gottfried Herder, Solomon Maimon, Johann August Eberhard, and arguably even Georg Friedrich Hegel. However, Baumgarten's Metaphysics has only recently become available in reliable German and English translations, as such many scholars have been excluded from the discussion and the significance of Baumgarten's work has remained largely unexplored. Thus, with the appearance of these translations, interest in Baumgarten's work has surged. This collection provides an anchor for this emerging discussion by presenting chapters by some of the scholars most responsible for Baumgarten's current reputation, together with some of the best young scholars in this emerging field. Ethics and "De Intellectus Emendatione". Benedictus de Spinoza, 1930 The Critic, 1892 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record, 1897 Canner and Dried Fruit Packer, 1926 Locomotive Engineers Journal, 1928 The Civil Law in Its Natural Order Jean Domat, 1722. With additional remarks on some material differences between the civil law and the law of England. T p
