Problems of Death, 1974 Problems of Death David L. Bender, 1974 Presents opposing viewpoints on euthanasia abortion suicide and funeral homes through essays by a variety of authors Includes discussion activities Problems of Death James D. Torr, 2000 Considers the following questions Is suicide immoral Should society condone physician assisted suicide Is abortion ethical Is capital punishment just Abortion-- Murder Or Mercy? François B. Gérard, 2001 This book is meant to provide an overview of and gather the literature on abortion one of the most divisive issues of our times Honest women and men the world over must deal with this issue in their hearts and minds whether or not they ever face the issue personally It is hard to conceive of a single thinking person who doesn't have an opinion on abortion usually strongly held The arguments are cogent on both sides of the issue We hope that this collection will bring to the attention of readers the publications which shed light on the fundamental issues involved Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Opposing Viewpoints Sources Bruno Leone, David L.
