The NIMBY Report National Low Income Housing Coalition,2002      NIMBYism Michael C. Thomsett,2004      Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1992-12 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world      The New Systems Reader James Gustave Speth,Kathleen Courrier,2020-10-19 The recognition is growing truly addressing the problems of the 21st century requires going beyond small tweaks and modest reforms to business as usual it requires changing the system But what does this mean And what would it entail The New Systems Reader highlights some of the most thoughtful substantive and promising answers to these questions drawing on the work and ideas of some of the world s key thinkers and activists on systemic change Amid the failure of traditional politics and policies to address our fundamental challenges an increasing number of thoughtful proposals and real world models suggest new possibilities this book convenes an essential conversation about the future we want      California. Court of Appeal (5th Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State).,      In the City of Neighborhoods Arthur J. O'Donnell,2004-12-03 It s like being in a small town right in the middle of a big city People belong to their neighborhood first and that neighborhood belongs to the city Karen Boyle Seattle neighborhood activist Seattle Washington has earned a national reputation as a City of Neighborhoods and a place where citizens take an active role in finding solutions to the problems of urban life The efforts of Seattle s neighborhood based councils and not for profit organizations were also seen as part of a national neighborhood movement that achieved prominence in the 1960s and 1970s Originally completed in 1982 as a series of radio programs exploring the history and directions of the neighborhood movement In the City of Neighborhoods was written and produced by award winning journalist Arthur J O Donnell The series also highlighted economic survival skills for non profit organizations during an era of budget constraints In this edition of In the City of Neighborhoods O Donnell augments his exploration of neighborhood activism with later articles covering the Not In My Back Yard NIMBY syndrome This special section called It s My Backyard Too provides insights into the arguments and tactics of those who oppose power plants transmission lines and other energy developments      Planning in the USA J. B. Cullingworth,Roger W. Caves,2009 This revised edition continues to provide a comprehensive introduction to the policies and practices of planning Discussing land use urban planning and environmental protection policies the text explains the nature of the planning process      Diversity and Turbulence in Contemporary Global Migration Natalie Walther Jones,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 In this masterful and well constructed work the authors have analysed and examined global migration through three continents the Caribbean the Middle East and North America They have used their many skills as researcher journalists educators and Graduate students to synthesise the literature in broad sweeping and technical detail This edition provides the framework for understanding migration in a global context encapsulating the diversity and turbulences that migrants face as they leave their homelands and venture abroad in search of a better quality of life It also incorporates the troubling economies of the countries and regions discussed and they were able to capture in many instances economic theory and its accompanying challenges and show that the locals are just as afraid as the migrants for the change that is so dynamic and has gone beyond the expectations of a people of place and of nation now continents It is in every respect ahistorical apolitical sociological and philosophical with prose that brings back memories of times past

Political Geographies of the Post-Soviet Union John O'Loughlin,Ralph S. Clem,2020-05-21 This comprehensive volume observes how after 25 years of transition and uncertainty in the countries that constituted the former Soviet Union their political geographies remain in a state of flux The authors explore the fluid relationship between Russia by far the dominant economic and military power in the region and the other former republics They also examine new developments towards economic blocs such as membership in the European Union or the competing Eurasian Economic Union as well as new security arrangements in the form of military cooperation and alliance structures This book reflects the broad range of changes across this important world region by engaging in insightful analysis of current developments in Central Asia Ukraine Russia the Caucasus and separatist regions The authors explore new state alliances and the evolving cultural and geopolitical orientations of former Soviet citizens Some chapters also examine the dynamics of wars that have occurred in the post Soviet space as well as how local political developments are reflected in electoral preferences and struggles over control of public spaces The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Eurasian Geography and Economics
