Earth Follies Joni Seager, 2019-03-21 First published in 1993 The question of agency is essential to our understanding of environmental problems who is responsible and why Threats such as ozone depletion global warming and overconsumption are all precipitated by the powerful institutions which shape modern life institutions which are overwhelmingly controlled by men and dominated by masculine presumptions Joni Seager argues that the gender bias inherent in western culture is inextricably linked to our environmental crisis She analyses the traditional institutes of power governments the military and transnational corporations and also takes a critical look at the equally patriarchal environmental establishment comparing the work of the official environmental movement grounded in masculine thought with the smaller scale direct actions taken by women driven to protect their homes and communities Earth Follies represents an incisive and utterly convincing feminist critique of our environmental crises and offers radical and productive priorities for the environmental agenda Literary

Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction Mohammad Khorrami, 2014-09-25 The main focus of Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction is to identify components and elements which define Persian modernist fiction placing an emphasis on literary concepts and devices which provide the dynamics of the evolutionary trajectory of this modernism The question of who writes Iran refers to a contested area which goes beyond the discipline of literary criticism Non literary discourses have made every effort to impose their committed readings on literary texts they have even managed to exert influence on the process of literary creation In this process inevitably many works or segments of them and many concepts which do not lend themselves to such readings have been ignored at the same time many of them have been appropriated by these discourses Yet components and elements of Persian literary tradition have persistently engaged in this discursive confrontation mainly by insisting on literature's relative autonomy so that at least concepts such as conformity and subterfuge essential in terms of defining modern and modernist Persian fiction could be defined in a literary manner Proffering an alternative in terms of literary historiography this book supports a methodological approach that considers literary narratives which occur in the margins of dominant discourses and indeed promote non discursivity as the main writers of Persian modernist fiction It is an essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in Persian and comparative literature as well as Middle Eastern Studies more broadly Into the Light Duncan Campbell, 2018-10-22

Beginning as a boyhood encounter with two Italian POWs from the Mediterranean put to work on his grandmother's vineyard in the Clare Valley of South Australia and through a career living in a variety of countries as a diplomat this is the story of how Duncan Campbell's experience with Italy gradually grew into a love affair with its language people history and the beauty of its countryside This began with his first experience in Verona and grew with his posting as ambassador to Rome and later with the many months spent each year in a Tuscan village Researches Into Chinese Superstitions Henri Doré, 1926 Handbook of Universal Literature from the Best and Latest Authorities Anne Charlotte Lynch
