Baptism Jim Petty,Miles Cotham,2022-11-11 In this study Jim Petty and Miles Cotham have made a thorough analysis of the biblical passages concerning the purpose of baptism particularly as it relates to holiness and forgiveness The authors have looked beyond the traditional church dogmas to discover and restore the beauty and significance of the baptismal event As the doctrine of baptism is wound and entwined through other doctrines taught in the New Testament a tapestry of salvation emerges in which each doctrine is dependent on and complimentary to the others Following a careful examination of the meaning of holiness the authors have demonstrated its close affinity to baptism as seen in the practice of baptism by John the Baptist and Jesus in the preaching of the early church and in the writings of the New Testament letters In the appendix the study concludes with a selected list of quotations throughout the history of the church that includes various interpretations of

the purpose of baptism

Climate Change and the Symbol Deficit in the Christian Tradition Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2022-02-24 Exploring how the climate crisis discloses the symbol deficit in the Christian tradition this book argues that Christianity is rich in symbols that identify and address the failures of humans and the obstacles that prevent humans from doing well while positive symbols that can engage people in constructive action seem underdeveloped Henriksen examines the potential of the Christian tradition to develop symbols that can engage peoples in committed and sustained action to prevent further crisis To do so he argues that we need symbols that engage both intellectually and emotionally and which enhance our perception of belonging in relationships with other humans be it both in the present and in the future According to Henriksen the deficit can only be obliterated if we can develop symbols that have some root or resonance in the Christian tradition provide concrete and specified guidance of agency engage people both emotionally and intellectually and finally open up to visions for a moral agency that provide positive motivations for caring about environmental conditions as a whole
