Orphan Island Rose Macaulay, 1925 In 1855 a philanthropic young person Miss Charlotte Smith was escorting forty orphans to San Francisco when the ship was wrecked and the survivors Miss Smith the orphans a doctor and some others landed on a desert island Those sailors who had escaped deserted them the next day in the boats There they remained unvisited for some seventy years with little to disturb the monotony beyond the adventures of the Doctor who was secured in turn by Miss Smith and a shark All this is contained in chapter one The second chapter opens in 1922 at Cambridge where lived the descendants of one of the sailors who deserted a professor and his three children A document and chart coming into the professor's hands left by his dead grandfather telling the story of the marooning of Miss Smith and the orphans the professor and his family voyage out to the island and find there a thriving community and Orphan Island is chiefly concerned with the community and the relations of it to the professor and his family Amazon

Orphan texts Laura Peters, 2018-09-30 In one of the first studies of its kind Orphan texts seeks to insert the orphan and the problems its existence poses in the larger critical areas of the family and childhood in Victorian culture In doing so Laura Peters considers certain canonical texts alongside lesser known works from popular culture in order to establish the context in which discourses of orphanhood operated The study argues that the prevalence of the orphan figure can be explained by considering the family The family and all it came to represent legitimacy race and national belonging was in crisis In order to reaffirm itself the family needed a scapegoat it found one in the orphan figure As one who embodied the loss of the family the orphan figure came to represent a dangerous threat to the family and the family reaffirmed itself through the expulsion of this threatening difference Orphan texts will be of interest to final year undergraduates postgraduates academics and those interested in the areas of Victorian literature Victorian studies postcolonial studies history and popular culture Orphan Island Dame Rose Macaulay,1941 Orphan Island Dame Rose Macaulay,1961 The Colombian Navigator; Or, Sailing Directory for the American Coasts and the West-Indies ... John Purdy,1839 The Dictionary of Imaginary Places Alberto Manguel, Gianni Guadalupi,2000 Describes and visualizes over 1 200 magical lands found in literature and film discussing such exotic realms as Atlantis Tolkien s Middle Earth and Oz The American Coast Pilot Edmund March Blunt,1827 Report to Congress for ... Near East Relief (Organization),1924 Desert Islands and Robinson Crusoe Walter De la Mare,1930 Documentary History of the State of Maine Maine Historical Society,1916 Women, War, Domesticity Nicole Huang,2005-03-01 In December 1941 the fifth year in an all scale cataclysmic Sino Japanese war that devoured much of Eastern China the city of Shanghai entered into an era of full occupation This was the moment when a group of young women authors began writing and soon took over the cultural scene of the besieged metropolis Women War Domesticity reconstructs cultures of reading writing and publishing in the city of Shanghai during the three years and eight months of Japanese occupation It specifically depicts the formation of a new cultural arena initiated by a group of women who not only wrote edited and published but also took part in defining and transforming the structure of modern knowledge discussing it in various public forums surrounding the print media and consequently promoting themselves as authoritative cultural commentators of the era Projecting A Nation Jubin Hu,2003-06-01 This is the first major work on pre 1949 Chinese cinema in English As such it represents a major contribution to existing discussions of both Chinese cinema and national cinema and is an indispensable basic resource for scholars interested in Chinese film history The book analyses the wide variety of conceptions of Chinese national cinema between the early years of the 20th century and 1949 and contrasts these to conceptions of national cinema in Europe and China After years of exhausting primary historical research the author has been able to bring to light sources hitherto not widely available The author argues that questions and debates about the status and meaning of the national in Chinese national cinema are central to any consideration of cinema during this period and addresses the issue of Chinese nationalism as part of a complex history of cinema within the early modern Chinese nation The Annual Register Edmund Burke,1925 Continuation of the reference work that originated with Robert Dodsley written and published each year which records and analyzes the year s major events developments and trends in Great Britain and throughout the world From the 1920s volumes of The Annual Register took the essential shape in which they have continued ever since opening with the history of Britain then a section on foreign history covering each country or region in turn Following these are the chronicle of events brief retrospectives on the year s cultural and economic developments a short selection of documents and obituaries of eminent persons who died in the year Surveillance in
