New Trends In Commercial Spaces:

New Trends in Commercial Spaces Carles Broto, 2005 Architecturally successful public spaces fulfill a dual task they make their identity representative which at times is to entertain and please the user and they offer the visitor a rapid and clear reading of their functions and services This is of particular importance with hotels restaurants shopping malls supermarkets cinemas and theatres which despite their great typological diversity must respond to both premises This brilliant publication presents an array of superbly designed public and commercial spaces where people undertake a range of activities from the deeply serious to the light and playful Those that also involve a business activity of commercial exchange present elements of functionality that are strongly impregnated with creative expression

New Trends In Commercial Spaces, 2005

The Commercialisation of Space Sarah Lieberman, Harald Köpping Athanasopoulos, Thomas Hoerber, 2023-03-29 This interdisciplinary book examines the impact of the commercialisation of space and the changing outlook of the space sector Using a framework based around theories of international political economy IPE the chapters take on issues relating to the politics the economics and the ethics of commercialising space The book aims to build a bridge between the research carried out on European Space Policy and the issues that are currently pertinent in the global discussion of future space policy Overall the volume aims to inform the reader about historical and contemporary developments in the neoliberal commercialisation of space assess the impact of the commercialisation of space on European space institutions European space policy and European space culture raise ethical questions about the environmental and practical sustainability of the commercialisation of space examine the compatibility of the commercialisation of space with international EU and national law This book will be of much interest to students of space policy global governance European politics and International Relations
