The UL Listing Mark is one of the most common UL Marks. If a product carries this mark, it means UL has found that representative product samples met UL's safety requirements.

Products certified to the requirements for the United States only.

Products certified to the requirements for both the United States and Canada.

Applied to products that have been certified to the Canadian requirements only.

ListingRecognized Component*Classification

Consumers rarely see these marks because they are specifically applied on component parts that are part of a larger product or system. These components typically have restrictions on their performance or may be incomplete in construction.

Products certified to the requirements for the United States only.

Products certified to the requirements for both the United States and Canada.

Applied to products that have been certified to the Canadian requirements only.

NOTE: Not all Recognized Components use the mark as the certification identification.
