Roundabout At Bangalow An Intimate Chronicle:

Roundabout at Bangalow Shirley Walker, 2015-11-23 Exploring four generations of life in Australia this intricate personal history shows the insularity of small towns rigid class and caste divisions and the effects of two world wars on Australian lives Told with humor and dry wit these extraordinary stories of pioneering struggles deep religious divisions and conflict within the family help navigate the history of Australia from the abundance of the eastern Byron Bay hinterland to the hardships of the northern soldier settler farm in North Queensland Fascinating and engaging this familial recollection is a revealing study of Australia's past ROUNDABOUT AT BANGALOW SHIRLEY. WALKER, 2016 The Ghost at the Wedding Shirley Walker, 2011-05-24 In 1914 in the canefields of northern New South Wales the young men couldn't wait to set off for the adventure of war The women coped as best as they could raised the children lived in fear of being the next to receive an official telegram They grieved their dead and came to learn that for returned men there are worse things than death in combat They bore more children to replace those lost in the First World War and the sons were just the right age to go off to the second The Ghost at the Wedding is like no other account of war chronicling events from both sides the horror of the battlefields and the women who were left at home Shirley Walker's depictions of those battles Gallipoli the Western Front the Kokoda Track are grittily accurate their reverberations haunting Written with the emotional power of a novel here is a true story whose sorrow is redeemed by astonishing beauty and strength of spirit By the Book Patrick Buckridge, Belinda McKay, 2007-09 Queensland a place of barren land and wild politics with subtropical weather beaches and natural wonders is the subject of this rich literary history Chronicling a wide range of literature from the first days of European settlement to the present day this collection touches upon thematic topics such as travel stories writing for children and indigenous writings The role of institutions such as schools public libraries the press and publishers as well as how they have contributed to the shaping of Queensland's literary development is also included Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend Dr Donna Coates, 2023-11-01 War is traditionally considered a male experience By extension the genre of war literature is a male dominated field and the tale of the battlefield remains the privileged and only canonised war story In Australia although women have written extensively about their wartime experiences their voices have been distinctively silenced Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend calls for a re definition of war literature to include the numerous voices of women writers and further recommends a re reading of Australian national literatures with women's war writing foregrounded to break the hold of a male dominated literary tradition and pass on a vital but unexplored women's tradition Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend examines the rich body of World Wars I and II and Vietnam War literature by Australian women providing the critical attention and treatment that they deserve Donna Coates records the reaction of Australian women writers to these conflicts illuminating the complex role of gender in the interpretation of war and in the cultural history of twentieth century Australia By visiting an astonishing number of unfamiliar non canonical texts Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend profoundly alters our understanding of how Australian women writers have interpreted war especially in a nation where the experience of colonising a frontier has spawned enduring myths of identity and statehood The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,2002 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Australian Book Review ,2005-03 Feminist Periodicals ,2002 Overland ,2003 Australian Literary Studies ,2004 Westerly ,2003 Auto/biography Studies ,2001 New Books on Women and Feminism ,2005 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Roundabout at Bangalow by Shirley Walker Gillian Bouras,2004
