Branson,2016-04 Just weeks after Jackie Robinson joined the Brooklyn Dodgers Larry Doby joined Robinson in breaking the color barrier in the major leagues when he became the first Black player to integrate the American League signing with the Cleveland Indians in July 1947 Doby went on to be a seven time All Star center fielder who led the Indians to two pennants In many respects Robinson and Doby were equals in their baseball talent and experiences and had remarkably similar playing careers both were well educated World War II veterans and both had played spectacularly albeit briefly in the Negro Leagues Like Robinson Doby suffered brickbats knock down pitches spit in his face and other forms of abuse and discrimination Doby was also a pioneering manager becoming the second black manager after Frank Robinson Well into the 1950s Doby was the only Black All Star in the American League during a period in which fifteen black players became National League All Stars Why is Doby largely forgotten as a central figure in baseball s integration Why has he not been accorded his rightful place in baseball history Greatness in the Shadows attempts to answer these questions bringing Doby s story to life and sharing his achievements and firsts with a new generation The Boy's Handbook of In-door and Out-door Sports ,1870
