When We Two Parted - Lord Byron	The love is painful as it is about the breaking of a romance that was secret.	The relationship between the two is broken and the speaker is filled with regret. He is left over the heart and will feels that it would make him cry.	When we two parted In silence and tears	How soon the time And cold	The tears are all Dry'd	A heart that never Will glow	How soon I grew fond Of thee Sister Sister	The broken pattern of rhyme gives the effect feeling that perhaps shows the struggling to think about the relationship.

The rhymes give the poem a slight focus but when read with certain lines feeling as an extended simile showing the spontaneity a poet's thoughts.
Sonnet 11 - Elizabeth Barrett Browning	Love in the poem is intense, passionate and full of desire showing the depth of the love between the two.	The relationship is strong because of the depth of love, but there is a hint that the distance is a problem - the exclamation at the start sounds like it is unnecessary to her lover that she does think of him.	What do I think Of my Thoughts In form and feel	How often or how often I think Of thee	I feel not love Nor thoughts About of thee	Answer by answer	Will be back of thee	The poem is a sonnet, set here with a volta in middle. The two stanzas is causing her to think the reality here, which is what when she does not see think of him as she is with him.
Single Song - Ralph Sledge	The love in the poem is playful at the start and exciting, but there is a sentimental and deeper love as the poem concludes. Poems and Prose on Love and Relationships I Valerie T. Mainville, 2008-05-28 It's Not Love, Unfortunately Lylanne Musselman, 2018-07 It's Not Love Unfortunately is a volume of poetry that explores experiences with relationships over a span of a lifetime from finding out early on that moms and dads are not all like Ward and June Cleaver to learning that boys are after more than friendship in junior high to marrying at eighteen and learning what an abusive relationship is all about to finding the survivor within divorcing and after years of searching for love finally coming out around forty years old the poet finds that relationships with women can be just as frustrating and abusive as those with men and that no matter what station you are in life and no matter what side of the fence you sit on love never comes easy and is even harder to find Nevertheless this volume of poems will leave you with a few tears and a few smiles but will never leave you feeling alone No matter who you are if you've ever loved or searched for love you will recognize yourself in these poems If you're a Baby Boomer you will find that the poet incorporates a lot of pop culture from the 1960s and 1970s that will bring memories rushing back if you're a GenXer or a Millennial you will find there's some familiar territory here for you too but all readers will find the clear connection is relationships for better or worse make us into who we are If we're lucky we will have interesting stories poems to tell even if it's not love unfortunately Indian English Poetry K. Gendered Modernisms Margaret Dickie, Thomas Travisano, 2016-11-11. Thirteen original essays on Gertrude Stein, H D, Marianne Moore, Edna St Vincent Millay, Laura Riding Jackson, Elizabeth Bishop, Muriel Rukeyser and Gwendolyn Brooks demonstrate how these women expand the social, textual and political boundaries of modernism. The collection places these poets in the context of their times, examining the conditions that helped shape their vivid and diverse poetic careers and reconsidering some of the assumptions that have led to their exclusion from the main narratives of modernist poetry. Ultimately the aim is to enlarge the literary history of the movement for gendered modernism extends backward to the first years of the century and forward to the beginnings of postmodernism in the 1960s. Language and Relationship in Wordsworth's Writing Michael Baron, 2014-10-13. William Wordsworth 1770-1850 needs little introduction as the central figure in Romantic poetry and a crucial influence in the development of poetry generally. This broad ranging survey redefines the variety of his writing by showing how it incorporates contemporary concepts of language, difference and the ways in which popular and serious literature were compared and distinguished during this period. It discusses many of Wordsworth's later poems, comparing his work with that of his regional contemporaries as well as major writers such as Scott. The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth's construction of community and his use of power relationships. A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included. The Works of Lord Macaulay: Speeches, poems & miscellaneous writings Thomas Babington Macaulay, 1898.
