The Varieties of Religious Experience William James, 2009-01-01 Harvard psychologist and philosopher William James The Varieties of Religious Experience A Study in Human Nature explores the nature of religion and in James observation its divorce from science when studied academically After publication in 1902 it quickly became a canonical text of philosophy and psychology remaining in print through the entire century Scientific theories are organically conditioned just as much as religious emotions are and if we only knew the facts intimately enough we should doubtless see the liver determining the dicta of the sturdy atheist as decisively as it does those of the Methodist under conviction anxious about his soul When it alters in one way the blood that percolates it we get the Methodist when in another way we get the atheist form of mind

The Varieties of Religious Experience William James, 1929      The History of Religions Joseph Mitsuo Kitagawa, 1987 This volume collects essays by the renowned scholar and historian of religion Joseph M Kitagawa The collection is organized into three parts Part one presents essays examining such topics as the history of the discipline its place in the academy and some of its basic categories and tenets Part two offers what Kitagawa calls studies in applied history of religions These essays demonstrate how insights derived from the practice of the history of religions can be applied to the political and spiritual problems of the day In a third and concluding section Kitagawa reflects on his own intellectual heritage with essays on Joachim Wach Mircea Eliade D T Suzuki Gerardus van der Leeuw Paul Tillich and Hendrik Kraemer

The Meaning of God, in Human Experience William Ernest Hocking, 2015-06-26 Excerpt from The Meaning of God in Human Experience A Philosophic Study of Religion The services of thought to religion have been subject to a justified distrust Of uncertain worth especially of uncertain recoil are the labors of reason in behalf of any of our weightier human interests By right instinct has religion from the beginning looked elsewhere for the brunt of support and defense say to revelation to faith to feeling A bad defense is a betrayal and what human philosophy of religion can be better than a bad defense Present day philosophy seems notably inclined to take this view of itself Is it not Bradley elder metaphysician to our time who jots down that metaphysics is the finding of bad reasons for what we believe on instinct Reason is not incapable of recognizing and confessing its own limits it may even take pride in expounding them an attitude which since Hume and Kant has become more or less fashionable Our current science of religion may now assume without too much discussion that the grounds of religion are super rational or sub rational and we find philosophy undertaking to define what these other than rational grounds are grounds moral perhaps or psychological or social or historical grounds pragmatic or even mystic Various and variously combined as are these several philosophic trends they agree in accepting the judgment that religion lies close to the primitive moving forces of life deeper than reason or any work of reason About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
