Seeing The Lions:

When the Last Lion Roars Sara Evans, 2018-06-14 The illegal killing of Cecil a famous and magnificent black maned Zimbabwean lion by an American big game hunter in 2015 sparked international outrage More significantly it drew the world's attention to the devastating plight of Africa's lions A century ago there were more than 200 000 wild lions living in Africa Today with that population reduced by more than 90 per cent many experts believe that without effective conservation plans Africa's remaining wild lions could be completely wiped out by the mid half of this century When the Last Lion Roars explores the historic rise and fall of the lion as a global species and examines the reasons behind its catastrophic decline Interwoven with vivid personal encounters of Africa's last lions Sara Evans questions what is being done to reverse or at least stem this population collapse and she considers the importance of human responsibility in this decline and more crucially in their conservation From the Lion Guardians in Kenya to the Living Walls of Tanzania and the Hwange Lion Research Project in Zimbabwe Sara meets both lions and their champions people who are fighting to bring this iconic species back from the brink of extinction
