

Regional Integration

Regional integration initiatives, according to Van Langenhove, should fulfil at least eight important functions:

- the strengthening of trade integration in the region
- the creation of an appropriate enabling environment for private sector development
- the development of infrastructure programmes in support of economic growth and regional integration
- the development of strong public sector institutions and good governance;
- the reduction of social exclusion and the development of an inclusive civil society
- contribution to peace and security in the region
- the building of environment programmes at the regional level
- the strengthening of the region's interaction with other regions of the world
