Seeing And Believing

Greg Philo

Seeing And Believing:

Seeing Is Believing Gregory A. Boyd, 2004-04-01 One of the most common problems with Christians in our modern secularized world is that they don't feel the reality of Jesus. Sure they believe in him and love him but he somehow doesn't seem to enter their daily lives in a real sense. Some might say "You ought to pray more." Others would advise "You ought to witness more." While this may be true we don't get closer to God just because we ought to. Boyd believes that the way to true spiritual transformation and feeling the presence of God in your life comes from a little R and R rest and reality. Boyd encourages readers to stop striving and learn to rest in an experience of Jesus as real. The best way to do this he says is through imaginative prayer. Experiencing Jesus will teach readers how to use God's gracious gift of creative imagination to know him better and feel his presence in their daily lives. Seeing and Believing Stuart C. Devenish, 2012-05-23

In a cinematic culture where multiple visions of reality play at the same time it is critical that Christian believers know how to confidently identify and discern among other stories the Jesus story that defines their most important commitment in life. Using the optical metaphor of the eye of faith the author identifies the spiritual life as a visual life. Through themes such as looking through Jesus' eyes the bible as a visionary text and the church as a wide-eyed people he builds a connecting bridge between the seeing soul in Christian spirituality and the twenty-first century as the age of the eye. The key words for this exploration are spirituality, discipleship, insight, luminescence, and optical therapy. The author proposes the need for a catechism of the eye that will lead to the renewal of Christian ministry, spirituality, discipleship, and identity. Seeing and

Believing Margaret Ruth Miles, 1997-09-04 Enriched by a cultural studies approach, a deep understanding of religion and history, and a love for the movies Seeing and Believing explores what popular films of the 1980s and 1990s say about religion and the values by which we live. Seeing & Believing Robert Boak Slocum, 2019-03-14

Draw nearer Lord you bring new courage. Lighten our path in every day. Through all our doubts and in our worries. Help us to follow on your way. Touch all our hearts with your devotion. Open our eyes so we may see. And in our darkness bring salvation. Until our life is one with thee.

RBS Believing Is Seeing Michael Guillen, PhD, 2021-09-07 Is your worldview enlightened enough to accommodate both science and God at the same time? Dr. Michael Guillen, a best-selling author, Emmy award-winning journalist, and former physics instructor at Harvard, used to be an atheist until science changed his mind. Once of the opinion that people of faith are weak, small-minded folks who just don't understand science, Dr. Guillen ultimately concluded that not only does science itself depend on faith but faith is actually the mightiest power in the universe. In Believing Is Seeing Dr. Guillen recounts the fascinating story of his journey from atheism to Christianity, pulling back the curtain on the mystery of faith as no one ever has by citing the latest discoveries in neuroscience, physics, astronomy, and mathematics. Is it true that seeing is believing? Or is it possible that reality can be perceived most clearly and logically through the eyes of faith and religion, and that truth is bigger than proof? Let Dr. Guillen be your apologetics guide as he brilliantly argues for a large and enlightened worldview consistent
