Ancestral Voices John Harold Hewitt, 1987 The Selected John Hewitt John Harold Hewitt, 1981 Northern Ireland poetry The Cambridge Companion to Irish Poets Gerald Dawe, 2018 A fresh accessible and authoritative study that conveys the richness and diversity of Irish poets their lives and times The City of Coventry Adrian Smith, 2006-10-27 The image of Coventry in flames was one of the most haunting of the Second World War Yet the excitement and optimism of the 1950s and 1960s were succeeded by a quarter century of urban blight and economic slump The collapse of manufacturing industry machine tools aeroplanes cars left a proud community adrift and demoralised Today a revitalised twenty first century city Coventry has embraced the new millennium and evolved from bleak post industrial desert to vibrant cultural oasis in the process rediscovering a sense of purpose and a vision for the future The City of Coventry tells the story of an experiment in social democracy carried out by a Labour controlled council which envisaged the bomb shattered city as a model of urban regeneration and imaginative planning Post war reconstruction could be a striking success as in the pedestrian friendly Precinct and the bold new cathedral or a notable failure as in the ever more intrusive ring roads and grim high rise flats In offering a fresh perspective on the city this innovative volume of essays rediscovers Coventry as an inspiration for poets and painters such as Philip Larkin and Terry Frost musicians as varied as Benjamin Britten and The Specials and film makers such as Humphrey Jennings whose Heart of Britain was shot in the immediate aftermath of the Blitz Adrian Smith skilfully mixes memoir family history and meticulous scholarship to paint a complete and incisive portrait of Coventry Drawing on new research into topics as diverse as the place of Surrealism in West Midlands culture and the shadowy presence of rugby league in a union bastion Smith brings a unique insight into the recent history of his native city Attractively presented highly readable and with broad appeal The City of Coventry is a lively re examination of an iconic city of the twentieth century illuminating the profound changes that engulfed industrial England during and after the Second World War Ireland, Literature, and the Coast Nicholas Allen, 2020 Ireland is home to one of the world's great literary and artistic traditions This book reads Irish literature and art in context of the island's coastal and maritime cultures setting a diverse range of writing and visual art in a fluid panorama of liquid associations that connect Irish literature to an archipelago of other times and places Colonial Consequences John Wilson Foster, 2015-02-01 Colonial Consequences contains sixteen essays in Irish literature and culture by Belfast born Vancouver based critic John Wilson Foster The essays survey texts genres and cultural backgrounds from eighteenth century landscape verse the origins of Irish modernism Yeats's great poem Easter 1916 to the literature and life styles of Northern Ireland They give eloquent close readings of specific writers Kavanagh Hewitt Rodgers Montague Murphy Donoghue and at the heart of the book Foster expands on his 1974 study of Seamus Heaney with a new and challenging analysis of the poet as a deeply political writer working through cultural traditions that are questioned while respected The volume concludes with recent essays which have made Foster an important figure in the current debate over political meanings and cultural trends in a riven unsettled society An unusual personal introduction by the author retraces the steps that led him to these combative and penetrating inquiries Scholarly engaged and readably written locally rooted yet globally perceived they provide a rich matrix of interpretation which frames the past while clarifying the future

Ecocriticism of the Global South Scott Slovic, Swarnalatha Rangarajan, Vidya Sarveswaran, 2015-03-24 The vast majority of existing ecocritical studies even those which espouse the postcolonial ecocritical perspective operate within a first world sensibility speaking on behalf of subalternized human communities and degraded landscapes without actually eliciting the voices of the impacted communities Ecocriticism of the Global South seeks to allow scholars from or intimately familiar with underrepresented regions to write back to the world's centers of political and military and economic power expressing views of the intersections of nature and culture from the perspective of developing countries This approach highlights what activist and writer Vandana Shiva has described as the relationship between ecology and the politics of survival showing both commonalities and local idiosyncrasies by juxtaposing such countries as China and Northern Ireland New Zealand and Cameroon Much like Ecoambiguity Community and Development this new book is devoted to representing diverse and innovative ecocritical voices from throughout the world particularly from developing nations The two volumes complement each other by pointing out the need for further cultivation of the environmental humanities in regions of the world that are essentially the front line of the human struggle to invent sustainable and just civilizations on an imperiled planet

Irish Poetry Since 1950 John Goodby, 2000-12-15 Irish Poetry since 1950 is a survey of poetry from Northern Ireland the Republic Britain and the US covering the 1950s the 1960s the early period of the Troubles up to 1976 the 1980s and the 1990s

The Force of Culture Gillian McIntosh, 1999 Gillian McIntosh examines the complexity of meanings and values associated with Northern Irish State since 1920 in this study that begins during the decade after World War 1 and concludes with the elaborate civic ritual of the Queen's visit in 1953

The Proper Word Gerald Dawe, 2007 This collection of essays and reviews by one of Ireland's leading poets and critics moves from assessments of the work of individual poets work to explorations of broader themes and topics in Irish cultural history

Thom's Irish Almanac and Official Directory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, 1881 Thom's Official Directory of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Year ..., 1889 Notes on the Life of Dr. John Hewytt, a Lancashire Worthy John Parsons Earwaker, 1877 Betraying the Age Åke Persson, 2000 Proceedings of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters, of Kentucky, at a Grand Annual Communication Royal and Select Masters (Masonic order). Grand Council of Kentucky, 1893 Éire-Ireland, 1990 Earth Voices Whispering Gerald Dawe, 2008 In the first half of the 20th century the men and women of Ireland experienced the brutal realities of a succession of wars from the unrelenting casualties of WW1 to the domestic upheavals of the 1916 Rising and the Irish Civil War from the romantic idealism of the Spanish Civil War to the unimaginable horrors of WW2 Earth Voices Whispering gathers together for the very first time a wide range of poetic voices that chart the human experiences of these wars compiled and edited by Belfast born poet and senior lecturer in Trinity College Dublin Gerald Dawe Featuring over three hundred poems by celebrated poets such as C S Lewis AE W B Yeats Patrick Kavanagh and Seamus Heaney and including new poems by Derek Mahon and Eilean N Chuilleanain the anthology records the thoughts and experiences of poets as soldiers patriots observers protestors medics and mourners From patriotism to anger passion to compassion hope to regret this groundbreaking new anthology embraces the complex reality of a rich unique and historically overlooked period in Irish poetry Irish and Catholic? Louise Fuller, John Littleton (Fr.), Eamon Maher, 2006 This book examines the changed and changing face of Irish Catholicism and Irish Catholic identity at the beginning of the third millennium There has never been any formal philosophical training in the Irish educational system that allows space for the type of intellectual engagement with issues of a religious nature that characterises a society like France for example So Irish and Catholic is in some ways an attempt to fill a void and to launch a debate that is absolutely necessary if we are to come to terms with a vastly changed socio religious landscape that could effectively be termed as post Catholic The essays are written by people who are both intimately associated with the Catholic Church in their role as priests and commentators or who have an interest in the topic from a literary theoretical or historical perspective It is the different prisms and lenses through which the issue of Irish Catholic identity or identities is examined that makes this such a challenging and fascinating study It avoids the danger of putting forward an apologia for the church or of embarking on an irrational attack on perceived abuses within the institution The Chosen Ground Neil Corcoran, 1992 For more than twenty years poetry from Northern Ireland has been amongst the most exciting in Britain Beginning with Seamus Heaney a wave of young poets has explored the political situation there in invigorating and inventive style The Chosen Ground explores this poetry and in particular the dual Irish and British context which lies at its heart How does this hybrid heritage influence poets like Mahon Muldoon and Montague Is the term Irish Poet a valid one What does Michael Longley mean by the often recurring word home How do Heaney s terms place and displacement apply to his own work Is Paulin s development of cultural analysis in poetry an effective response This book offers new readings of poetry from Northern Ireland It looks also behind the accepted literary historical context for further illuminating entries into the poetry from the classicism of Ovid to the theories of postmodernism Paperbound Books in Print , 1991
