Midge Decker:

Midge & Decker Robert Mayer, 1982 Adrienne Rich Karen F. Stein, 2017-10-10 In her six decade long writing career Adrienne Rich 1929 2012 addressed with sagacity and probing honesty most of the significant issues of her lifetime A poet of finely tuned craft she won numerous prizes awards and honorary degrees and famously rejected the prestigious National Medal for the Arts in 1997 She wrote twenty five volumes of poetry and seven non fiction books as she combined the roles of poet scholar theorist and activist Rich wrote passionately and powerfully about major 20th and early 21st century concerns such as feminism racism sexism the Vietnam War Marxism militarism the growing income disparities in the U S and other social issues Her works ask important questions about how we should act and what we should believe They imagine new ways to deal with the social and political challenges of the twentieth century Setting her work in the context of her life and American politics and culture during her lifetime this book explores Rich s poetic and personal journey from conservative dutiful follower of cultural and poetic traditions to challenging questioner and critic from passivity and powerlessness to activist theorist and acclaimed poet of the oppositional imagination I Must Resist Bayard Rustin, 2012-03-20 BAYARD RUSTIN POSTHUMOUSLY AWARDED THE 2013 PRESIDENTIAL MEDAL OF FREEDOM A master strategist and tireless activist Bayard Rustin is best remembered as the organizer of the 1963 March on Washington one of the largest nonviolent protests ever held in the United States He brought Gandhi s protest techniques to the American civil rights movement and played a deeply influential role in the life of Martin Luther King Jr helping to mold him into an international symbol of nonviolence Despite these achievements Rustin often remained in the background He was silenced threatened arrested beaten imprisoned and fired from important leadership positions largely because he was an openly gay man in a fiercely homophobic era Here we have Rustin in his own words in a collection of over 150 of his eloquent impassioned letters his correspondents include the major progressives of his day including Eleanor Holmes Norton A Philip Randolph Roy Wilkins Ella Baker and of course Martin Luther King Jr Bayard Rustin s ability to chart the path from protest to politics is both timely and deeply informative Here at last is direct access to the strategic thinking and tactical planning that led to the successes of one of America s most transformative and historic social movements Rustin was a life long agitator for justice He changed America and the world for the better This collection of his letters makes his life and his passions come vividly alive and helps restore him to history a century after this birth I Must Resist makes for inspiring reading John D Emilio author of Lost Prophet The Life and Times of Bayard Rustin A vital addition to the history of the civil rights movement by an exceptionally determined vital and creative force who was invaluable to Martin Luther King Jr and A Philip Randolph among many others Nat Hentoff Bayard Rustin s courageously candid letters most of which have never before been available to researchers provide fascinating glimpses into the private life of one of history s most reticent public figures Clayborne Carson Founding Director of the Martin Luther King Jr Research and Education Institute at Stanford University These letters poetic incisive passionate and above all political in the broadest meaning of the word span almost four decades not only of Bayard Rustin's life but of the emotional and spiritual life of America. There is hardly a social justice movement during this time in which Rustin was not involved from pacifism to ending poverty to battles for sexual freedom. Michael Long's brilliant editing has created a compelling historical narrative and reading these letters is to be witness to the ever-evolving conscience that guides our country's endangered but surviving commitment to freedom. Michael Bronski, author of A Queer History of the United States, Bayard Rustin was a committed but very complicated person. This marvelously annotated collection of letters explains the spirit and evolution of the thoughts and actions of an often overlooked key figure in the 20th-century civil and human rights movement. Mary Frances Berry, Geraldine Segal, Professor of American Social Thought, University of Pennsylvania, and former Chair, United States Commission on Civil Rights. All aspects of Rustin's experiences are captured in these letters, including his struggles with opponents dedicated to silencing him as an international symbol of nonviolent protests against racial injustice. This remarkable and deeply moving publication is a must-read. William Julius Wilson, Lewis P. and Linda L. Geysler, University Professor, Harvard University.

The Scorpion and the Frog: a Natural Conspiracy William A. Borst, 2004-11-22. To deny that conspiracies exist is to deny history. While there are several chapters on traditional conspirators from the Masons through the Bilderbergers, the book unveils the ideas that have unified conspiracies into a coherent rendition of evil. This book is an intellectual history of the City of God versus the City of Man in the ultimate culture war. It does not take a cadre of men in some secret room to effect a unified conspiracy. Like the scorpion in the fable, their ideas become second nature to liberals, socialists, or communists, and they act in accordance with their nature. The Bloomsbury Review, 1981. The Magic Writing Machine; Student Probes of the New Journalism Everette E. Dennis, 1971. Commentary, 1975. Aeropinion, 1945. New Mexico Magazine, 1983. National Guide to Funding in Health Foundation Center, 2003. Survey, 1984. The American School Board Journal William George Bruce, William Conrad Bruce, 1978. The New York Times Book Review, 1975. The Publishers Weekly, 1981. Library Journal, 1981. The Chains of Honor Robert Bachman, 2005-05. Allen Decker is an athlete and an optimist from a small town in upstate New York. Attending college on a football scholarship, he encounters the cruel forces of privilege among his fellows and suffers the machinations of a callow, covetous girl, but he maintains the courage of his convictions. Later, Decker volunteers to serve his country in WWII and ships out only to have his past find him worlds away in a jeep convoy on the Burma Road. National Union Catalog, 1982. Includes entries for maps and atlases. Když kraloval charakter Peggy Noonan, 2004. Subject Catalog, 1982. Library of Congress, 1982. Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1982.
