Sexual Politics And Greedy Institutions:

Sexual Politics and Greedy Institutions Suzanne Franzway, 2001 Exploration of the challenges and conflicts women face with regard to participation in unions and other labour institutions Highlights the paradox that trade unions along with other agents of social improvement demand a level of commitment that precludes many people particularly women from being involved Contends that this practice makes it difficult for women to contribute to the institutions that are supposed to be in place to protect their rights Includes notes references and index Author is Senior Lecturer and member of the Research Centre for Gender Studies at the University of South Australia and previously wrote Staking a Claim Feminism Bureaucracy and the State

The Sexual Politics of Gendered Violence and Women's Citizenship Suzanne Franzway, Nicole Moulding, Sarah Wendt, Carole Zufferey, Donna Chung, 2018-11-28 The challenge of violence against women should be recognised as an issue for the state citizenship and the whole community This book examines how responses by the state sanction violence against women and shape a woman's citizenship long after she has escaped from a violent partner Drawing from a long term study of women's lives in Australia including before and after a relationship with a violent partner it investigates the effects of intimate partner violence on aspects of everyday life including housing employment mental health and social participation The book contributes to theoretical explanations of violence against women by reframing it through the lens of sexual politics Finally it offers critical insights for the development of social policy and practice

Stopping Rape Sylvia Walby, Philippa Olive, Jude Towers, Brian Francis, Sofia Strid, Andrea Krizsán, Emanuela Lombardo, Corinne May-Chahal, Suzanne Franzway, David Sugarman, Bina Agarwal, Jo Armstrong, 2015-07-22 Available Open Access under CC BY NC licence The need to stop rape is pressing and since it is the outcome of a wide range of practices and institutions in society so too must the policies be to stop it This important book offers a comprehensive guide to the international policies developed to stop rape together with case study examples on how they work The book engages with the law and criminal justice system health services specialised services for victim survivors educational and cultural interventions as well as how they can best be coordinated It is informed by theory and evidence drawn from scholarship and practice from around the world The book will be of interest to a global readership of students practitioners and policy makers as well as anyone who wants to know how rape can be stopped

Women, Labor Segmentation and Regulation David Peetz, Georgina Murray, 2017-04-17 This book re shapes thinking on gender gaps differences between men and women in their incomes their employment and their conditions of work It shows how the interaction between regulation distance and content labor segmentation and norms helps us understand various aspects of gender gaps It brings together leading authors from industrial relations sociology politics and feminist economics who outline the roles the family state public policy trade unions and class play in creating gender gaps and consider the lessons from international comparisons While many studies have focused on the role of society or organizations this book also pays attention to the role of occupations in promoting and reinforcing gender gaps discussing groups such as apparel outworkers film and video workers care workers public sector professionals like librarians chief executives academics and coal miners This book will be of interest to practitioners policy makers academics and students interested in understanding why inequality between men and women persists today and what might be done about it

Interpretive Political Science R. A. W. Rhodes, 2017-06-30 Interpretive Political Science is the second of two volumes featuring a selection of key writings by R A W Rhodes Volume II looks forward and explores the interpretive turn and its implications for the craft of political science especially public administration and draws together articles from 2005 onwards on the theme of the interpretive turn in political science Part I provides a summary statement of the interpretive approach and Part II develops the theme of blurring genres and discusses a variety of research methods common in the humanities including ethnographic fieldwork life history and focus groups Part III demonstrates how the genres of thought and presentation found in the humanities can be used in political science It presents four examples of such blurring at work with studies of applied anthropology and civil service reform women's studies and government departments and storytelling and local knowledge The book concludes with a summary of what is edifying about an interpretive approach and why this approach matters and revisits some of the more common criticisms before indulging in plausible conjectures about the future of interpretivism The author seeks new and interesting ways to explore governance high politics public policies and the study of public administration in general Volume I collects in one place for the first time the main articles written by Rhodes on policy networks and governance between 1990 and 2005 and explores a new way of describing British government focusing on policy making and the ways in which policy is put into practice

Greedy Institutions; Patterns of Undivided Commitment Lewis A. Coser, 1974

Trade Union Responses to Globalization Verena Schmidt, 2007 Bringing together papers from national and international experts from the Global Union Research Network GURN this book provides an overview of how trade unions around the world are responding to globalisation Globalisation has proved a complex and multi faceted process for workers as are the strategies they must develop to face its challenges The case studies in this volume demonstrate successful strategies undertaken by trade unions in Brazil Bulgaria the Caribbean Colombia India Poland the United Kingdom Turkey as well as Southern and Eastern Africa In the process the contributors highlight issues crucial to trade unions in this period of fast paced change such as the struggle for transparent governance for a fairer globalisation the implementation of labour standards employment creation social protection poverty alleviation including meeting the UN's Millennium Development Goals and gender equality and more It shows how trade unions are a key part in influencing the rules of globalisation to achieve a fairer globalisation while also playing a role in implementing and enforcing these rules

Hecate, 2004 The Economic and Labour Relations Review, 2003 Ivory Basement Leadership Joan Eveline, 2004 Many people fear that the ivory tower is crumbling Of urgent concern are deteriorating standards fewer jobs waning professional prestige and new layers of inequity Leadership in the tower is easy to spot It is hierarchical detached and mostly male In this highly readable book Joan Eveline turns her acute gaze to the ivory basement where the corridors departments laboratories and offices are peopled There she observes a greedy organization cannibalizing the efforts energy and care of the basement s workers most of whom are women Voices from the basement of the University of Western Australia but it could be any university speak about the devaluing of their work Eveline detects a new linkage through shared experience of administrative staff research assistants and the lower order of academics who increasingly are casual workers And she discerns a courageous and almost invisible exercise of leadership This post heroic leadership values personal relationship loyalty and diversity It is creative flexible and above all collaborative This book will hearten those dismayed by the restructuring pandemic For ivory basement workers have in adversity forged a leadership model that might well be mobilized to revive Australia s ailing universities The Adelaide Law Review, 2002 The Politics of Dictatorship Novels Oscar Javier Gonzalez Anaya, 2001 Boys and Schooling B. Lingard, Wayne Martino, Martin Mills, 2009 Exploring the limitations of current approaches to addressing boys education this study illustrates how initiatives such as single sex classes and schools for boys the boy friendly curriculum and the call for more male teachers as role models have the potential to exacerbate rather than ameliorate the problems that boys are supposedly experiencing in schools The book demonstrates that such approaches to boys education have failed to acknowledge the significant impact of masculinity on both boys and girls lives and in turn have failed to address equity issues experienced by both minority boys and girls in schools This study argues for new policies and a pedagogical reform agenda that engages with a more nuanced understanding of what constitutes good teaching and effective learning in schools for all students while simultaneously interrogating the constraints imposed by dominant or stereotypical constructions of masculinity The Australasian Review of African Studies, 2006 Men's Lives Michael S. Kimmel, Michael A. Messner, 2007 Edited by two of the field s most prominent researchers this best selling reader on men and masculinity contains the most current articles available Organized around themes that define masculinity this reader takes a life course perspective using the idea that men as well as women are gendered and that this gendering process is a central experience for men New to This Edition Twenty four readings are new to this edition New topics include being a male pro feminist college instructor the meaning of being labeled a fag growing up as a sissy gender
