In the Shadow of the Holocaust James F. Tent, 2003 James Tent recounts how these men and women from all over Germany and from all walks of life struggled to survive in an increasingly hostile society even as their Jewish relatives were disappearing into the East It draws on extensive interviews with twenty survivors many of whom were teenagers when Hitler came to power to show how half Jews coped with conditions on a day to day basis and how the legacy of the hatred they suffered still lingers in their minds      The Value of Names and Other Plays Jeffrey Sweet, 2008-05-14 In this collection of plays the playwright confronts both personal politics and the impact of historical change The title work first mounted in 1982 is a comedy drama about the aftermath of the blacklist whose continued relevance makes it a frequently produced play today The family drama Porch suggests larger social changes through the interaction of a small town shopkeeper and his defiant daughter The lauded American Enterprise set in the Chicago of the robber barons is a song filled true story about a millionaire whose stubborn idealism leads to disaster Stay till morning is a rueful comedy about sex and accommodation in the Florida Keys The three plays that grew out of his fascination with the effects of World War II Berlin 45 Court martial at Fort Devens and The action against Sol Schumann dramatize the ways in which that conflict transformed private fates Each script is accompanied by an introduction from the playwright as well as performance notes      Shadows of Berlin David R.
