Maj, Norman Sartorius

Moonshine Markets:

Moonshine! Matthew B. Rowley, 2007 Traces the history and lore of moonshine from its pioneer origins through prohibition to today's artisanal libations offering instructions for building a still basic distilling techniques and dozens of recipes
Working Together to Reduce Harmful Drinking Marcus Grant, Mark Leverton, 2009-10-05 This book is intended to contribute to the World Health Organization's WHO global strategy to reduce the harmful use of alcohol It explores areas where alcohol producers technical competence can and does make a positive contribution to reducing harmful drinking and where industry input has been welcomed by WHO The book describes each of these areas producing beer wine and spirits addressing availability of noncommercial beverages pricing marketing and selling beverage alcohol encouraging responsible choices and working with others The final chapter sets out views of how alcohol producers can contribute to reducing harmful drinking in countries where they are present The messages recurring throughout the book are that reasonable regulation provides the context for good alcohol policy excessive regulation often leads to unintended negative consequences leading producers have a proud record of making positive contributions to implementing effective alcohol policies but there are opportunities to do much more

Substance Abuse Disorders Hamid Ghodse, Helen Herrman, Mario Maj, Norman Sartorius, 2011-04-08 Substance abuse disorders are among the most prevalent psychiatric disorders and are frequently comorbid with other psychiatric and health conditions and accompanied by social problems however they remain under recognized and under treated Many physicians and mental health practitioners receive little to no training in the identification and treatment of these disorders Approaches to their prevention include some of the major success stories in modern public health as well as some of the deepest controversies in public life This new title in the WPA series Evidence and Experience in Psychiatry informs psychiatrists and a wide range of professional groups from health and social services about these disorders and their treatment and control Highly Commended in the Psychiatry section of the 2012 BMA Book Awards

Food and Drink in American History Andrew F. Smith, 2013-10-28 This three volume encyclopedia on the history of American food and beverages serves as an ideal companion resource for social studies and American history courses covering topics ranging from early American Indian foods to mandatory nutrition information at fast food restaurants The expression you are what you eat certainly applies to Americans not just in terms of our physical health but also in the myriad ways that our taste preferences eating habits and food culture are intrinsically tied to our society and history This standout reference work comprises two volumes containing more than 600 alphabetically arranged historical entries on American foods and beverages as well as dozens of historical recipes for traditional American foods and a third volume of more than 120 primary source documents Never before has there been a reference work that coalesces this diverse range of information into a single set The entries in this set provide information that will transform any American history research project into an engaging learning experience Examples include explanations of how tuna fish became a staple food product for Americans how the canning industry emerged from the Civil War the difference between Americans and people of other countries in terms of what percentage of their income is spent on food and beverages and how taxation on beverages like tea rum and whisky set off important political rebellions in U S history Market Watch ,1981 Can Microfinance Work? Lesley Sherratt,2016 Can Microfinance Work presents a thorough going and nuanced ethical assessment of the microfinance industry drawing on the author s expertise in the fields of finance and applied ethics That comprehensive analysis is then used to ground concrete policy proposals some quite radical to improve both microfinance s ethical balance and its overall effectiveness Modern Moonshine Cameron D. Lippard,Bruce E. Stewart,2019 The craft of making moonshine an unaged white whiskey often made and consumed outside legal parameters nearly went extinct in the late twentieth century as law enforcement cracked down on illicit producers and cheaper lawful alcohol became readily available Yet the twenty first century has witnessed a resurgence of artisanal distilling as both connoisseurs and those reconnecting with their heritage have created a vibrant new culture of moonshine While not limited to Appalachia moonshine is often entwined with the region in popular understandings The first interdisciplinary examination of the legal moonshine industry Modern Moonshine probes the causes and impact of the so called moonshine revival What does the moonshine revival tell us about our national culture How does it shape the image of Appalachia and rural America Focusing mostly on southern Appalachia the book s eleven essays chronicle such popular figures as Popcorn Sutton and explore how and why distillers promote their product as traditional and authentic This edited collection draws from scholars across the disciplines of anthropology history geography and sociology to make sense of the legal social and historical shifts behind contemporary production and consumption of moonshine and offers a fresh perspective on an enduring topic of Appalachian myth and reality The Market-place Harold Frederic,1899 Drug Markets ,1926 Market Growers Journal ,1926 Drug and Chemical Markets ,1920 Oregon Dairy and Food Bulletin Oregon. Dept. of Agriculture. Division of Foods and Dairies,1915 Night Club & Bar ,2004 The Game Breeder and Sportsman ,1919 Wines & Vines H. F. Stoll,2004 Moonshine Markets Alan Haworth,Ronald Simpson,2004-06-01 This text reports on patterns of consumption of non branded alcohol in seven countries Brazil India Mexico Russia Tanzania Zambia and Zimbabwe Using local consultants investigators interviewed families in each country in both rural and urban areas on the subject of their drinking habits over a thirty day period giving specific attention to their religious educational and socio economic status Experts in the fields of toxicology economics and anthropology as well as representatives of the beverage industry give commentary on the common themes emerging from the collected data Weekly Drug Markets ,1914 Oregon Dairy and Food Bulletin ,1927 Home Market Bulletin ,1907 Annual Report Illinois. Food Commissioner,1913
