Weeping in the Playtime of Others Kenneth Wooden,1976 Where are America s children tonight Over 50 000 of them between the ages of five and sixteen are locked away in prisons though they are innocent of any crime These prisons are called detention centers reform schools and training schools but there are no euphemisms for their brutality and their cruelty They constitute a child care system that perpetuates such conditions as the Florida facility which punishes by subjecting them to mock burials a Southern school for disturbed children which regularly employs bull whips and leg irons to restrain its charges a Texas facility that finds an electric bull shocker an effective disciplinary measure a psychotic child in an Arizona detention center who escaped solitary confinement the only way he knew he killed himself by violently flipping his body over a bar and breaking his neck These are not isolated instances they indicate a shocking pattern of child abuse and experimentation that has become a virtual business in this country This gripping expose reveals for the first time on a national scale the grim truth of our juvenile jails and constitutes an indictment of an exploitive system maintained at staggering public expense and immeasurable human cost It exposes the politics of incarcerating young children to perpetuate the penal institution industry the politics of jobs of corruption of professional power and greed and most damning the politics of misinforming the public while innocent children are destroyed generation after generation Dust jacket The Fuller Bristler ,1924 The Native American ,1928 Games & Toys ,1963 The Official Washington Post Index ,1988 Time ,2007 Playtime Country Vacation Guide , Time & Tide Helen A.
