Recollections of an Old Musician Thomas Ryan,2015-06-15 Excerpt from Recollections of an Old Musician

Retrospection is the inheritance of mature age We all love to recall the scenes of the past and the companions of our pleasures or sorrows I often order memory to unroll slowly before my mental vision the panorama of my past life Upon some of the scenes I look with a strong desire to chain the wheels that move them from view but with others those wheels cannot turn too quickly The first picture I call up stands out clearly defined I see myself as a boy again landing on America s shore with the pleasures of hope shining in my eyes for a good fairy has touched the new land with her magic wand and every object I look upon is strangely beautiful The same good fairy leads me up State Street and Court Street in Boston and wandering aimlessly and boylike I follow up the hill into Pemberton Square I stand there and look round at the solid comfortable stately mansions of old Boston s aristocracy and possibly I feel my own insignificance About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
