Rectangular Morning Poem Peter Ganick, 1989 The Poetry and Poetics of Michael Heller Jon Curley, Burt Kimmelman, 2015-07-01 The Poetry and Poetics of Michael Heller A Nomad Memory is the first comprehensive treatment of a singularly important American poet of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Michael Heller b 1937 has amassed a body of poetry and criticism that places him in the vanguard of modern literature and this essay collection provides the first extensive critical treatment of his varied career This book s multifaceted appraisal of his engagement with poetry as well as crucial ideas across various traditions establishes him as a preeminent writer among his contemporaries and younger generations and as a major poet in any era The I and the You Jean Day, 1992 The Art of Practice Dennis Barone, Peter Ganick, 1994 Poetry In THE ART OF PRACTICE the poem is viewed as primary not prior to or about experience but itself experience The editors make clear that neither expression description nor voice is the point of this poetry it is the embodiment of the mind discovering Jackson Mac Low How Phenomena Appear to Unfold Leslie Scalapino, 1989

Prose Poetry Paul Hetherington, Cassandra Atherton, 2020-10-13 An engaging and authoritative introduction to an increasingly important and popular literary genre Prose Poetry is the first book of its kind an engaging and authoritative introduction to the history development and features of English language prose poetry an increasingly important and popular literary form that is still too little understood and appreciated Poets and scholars Paul Hetherington and Cassandra Atherton introduce prose poetry s key characteristics chart its evolution from the nineteenth century to the present and discuss many historical and contemporary prose poems that both demonstrate their great diversity around the Anglophone world and show why they represent some of today s most inventive writing A prose poem looks like prose but reads like poetry it lacks the line breaks of other poetic forms but employs poetic techniques such as internal rhyme repetition and compression Prose Poetry explains how this form opens new spaces for writers to create riveting works that reshape the resources of prose while redefining the poetic Discussing prose poetry s precursors including William Wordsworth and Walt Whitman and prose poets such as Charles Simic Russell Edson Lydia Davis and Claudia Rankine the book pays equal attention to male and female prose poets documenting women s essential but frequently unacknowledged contributions to the genre Revealing how prose poetry tests boundaries and challenges conventions to open up new imaginative vistas this is an essential book for all readers students teachers and writers of prose poetry Patterns, Contexts, Time Charles Bernstein, 1990 Podiums Peter Ganick, 2001 Tyonyi, 1990 Catfishes & Jackals Susan Smith Nash, 1997 Drama Susan Smith Nash s dramas are postmodern collisions of cultures and identities which ask the audience and not always politely to look within themselves They ll discover the prejudice and arrogance they thought belonged to someone else are festering inside their own minds But so festers freedom And the world of possibilities Ana Erentxum Goya's L.A. Leslie Scalapino, 1994 Drama GOYA S L A The forgotten narrative structure of GOYA S L A may be thought to be voyeuristically looking in on the visible products of its own invisible narrative mechanisms These products are the play's characters who survive the dissociation from structure through the practice of an intellectual nomadism Scalapino has created a drastic and carnivalesque confrontation between the nomadic interiority where learning can go on and the overwhelming oversight of the forgotten structure whose own survival depends on its not being known Carla Harryman Floating Capital Adrian Clarke, Robert Sheppard, 1991 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1994 Around a Corner Peter Ganick, 2000 This book was written on a laptop computer during 1997 mostly while the author was engaged at an art gallery sitting job at Artworks Gallery in Hartford CT It is more than a stream of consciousness work it has elements of the disjunctness of Language poetry Places People Dare Not Enter Martine Bellen, 1991 Poetry Martine Bellen's poems dissolve the world of ordinary conversation and etch out patterns that demand another kind of world one in which Satan is satin but still Satan And then it comes as something of a shock to find that it's in fact our ordinary world still which she has somehow gotten from a new angle A real achievement Keith Waldrop The Champagne of Concrete Kit Robinson, 1991 Poetry Kit Robinson's writing focuses on the transformation of the common place It is embedded in the familiar materials of everyday life but so changed and charged by syntax sound and rhythm that multiple meanings team up against memory making for an imaginative timeless verse full of siege and moxie Jerry Estrin Sulfur, 1990 Imaginary Movie Diane Ward, 1992 Poetry Diane Ward's new book ushers us into an imaginary movie only to tell us we have never left The precise declarative elegance of Ward's lines both critique the social forces of the spectacle and situate the reader in an autonomous milieu at once public and private Ward has discovered the means of exploiting poetic language which turns language into a moral force She offers us in our collaborative improvising as readers a dignity equal to the authority of the writer Her writing provides us with the means to name what otherwise impedes change This IMAGINARY MOVIE is no skin deep technology but a connected sifting of last things Jerry Estrin Executive Summary Bruce Andrews, 1991 Aerial, 1987
