Hunter Killer Squadron Matthew Brennan, Paul McCarthy, 1992 The true story of the 1st Cav's elite air ground assault force Above the Best Major Dick Hale, 2012-07-11 It was 1950 the converted LSI was plowing the waters of the Pacific heading towards Korea when Robert Baker an enlisted man aboard the ship was summoned by a Chief Petty Officer to deliver messages to the Signal Officer in the ship's ward room And it was a moment of truth for Baker When ushered into the ship's ward room Robert became painfully aware that he had somehow been assigned to the wrong part of the ship The officers that he was only hazily aware of during his day to day duties were actually sitting at tables covered with linen table clothes drinking their coffee from china cups while being served by a Philippine steward's mate Baker on the other hand was eating off of a tin tray one deck below and under very different circumstances Different enough that he decided to change his circumstances for the better That afternoon Baker submitted his application for flight training with the U S Navy He had always wanted to fly anyway Baker had actually logged four or five hours a couple of years earlier during his assignment at the Naval Air Station in Jacksonville Florida He had only quit then because he could no longer afford it After a lot of pain blood and about ten days in the hospital wearing a kotex under his nose he was finished with all the formalities Now it was just a question of waiting for the orders to arrive The U S Navy like any other military organization moves slowly In this case they didn't move fast enough After months of waiting with no answer to the application frustration set in along with the end of his enlistment in the Navy Not easily deterred Baker felt it was the Navy's loss and some other services gain Air Cav J.D. Coleman, 2011-06-08 Air Cav History of the 1st Cavalry Division in Vietnam 1965 1969 is the story of the small close world of fighting men in action told in their own words and supplemented with vivid photographs of the First Cavalry Division's experience in the war and a history of the division This volume can be many things to many people a book of memories a souvenir a pictorial essay on airmobility or simply a story of gallant men at war It can be many things but one thing it is not nor does it pretend to be a complete history of the 1st Air Cavalry Division in Vietnam The task and burden of history must lie with the objectivity of future generations far removed from current pressures and restraints It is true of course that much research for this book has been done from available official records the ultimate source of written history But even more has been drawn from the vivid recollections of the Cavalrymen who fought tasted the brassy bile of fear shared the fierce exultation of victory or were drenched in the dark despair of death This volume contains the memoirs of a fighting team the FIRST TEAM It is a memory of combat no doubt it is imperfect as all memory is but nonetheless it is real for those who were there for those who can fill in the inevitable gaps Taking Fire Ron Alexander, Charles W.
