The Ephemera of Mark Morrisroe Mark Morrisroe, 2012 The photographs of Mark Morrisroe 1959-1989 are steeped in fragility both as material objects scored and pockmarked by the vicissitudes of time and as forlorn commemorations of brief moments in all too brief lives In this sense the photographs are also objects of ephemera of a piece with Morrisroe's equally fragile magazines collages and drawings which this volume compiles for the first time Containing much previously unpublished work Mark Dirt includes spreads from Morrisroe's punk zine Dirt he sort of invented the Boston punk scene Jack Pierson later recalled of his former lover as well as correspondence and notes by the artist sketches and even his last will and testament All of these documents have been assembled by Morrisroe's longtime partner Ramsey McPhillips and represent the most complete survey of the artist's non-photographic works

AIDS and Representation Fiona Johnstone, 2023-05-18 AIDS Representation explores portraits and self-portraits made in response to the AIDS epidemic in America in the 1980s and 1990s Addressing the work of artists including Mark Morrisroe Robert Blanchon and Felix Gonzalez Torres through the interrelated themes of sickness and mortality desire and sexual identity love and loss Fiona Johnstone shows how the self-representational practices of artists with HIV and AIDS offered a richly imaginative response to the limitations of early AIDS imagery Johnstone argues that the AIDS epidemic changed the very nature of visual representation and artistic practice necessitating a radical new approach to conceptualising and visualising the human form An extended epilogue considers the ongoing art-historicization of the epidemic re-contextualising the book's themes in relation to contemporary photographic works More than just a historical discussion of the art of the AIDS crisis AIDS and Representation contributes to an emergent body of scholarship on the visual
