

Know Your Library Manners

It's important to use manners wherever you go. For example, you need to be quiet at the movie theater and take turns at the playground. There are also specific manners you should use when you're at the library!

Using these manners will help you be an excellent library user.

Use your inside voice

The library is a quiet place. Be respectful of others who are reading or doing work. It's okay to talk to your friends; just keep your voice quiet.

Return your books

Be sure to return your books on time. You can even return them early! Others may be waiting to check them out.

Clean up after yourself

Put away any materials you've used. When you clean up after yourself, you help make the library a nice place for others.
